Bringing our instructors together in one place to provide a week's worth of training has grown into our annual conference. Students and instructors come from around the world to share their knowledge, gain new insight, and enjoy the fellowship of their peers.

With over 30 instructor-level courses and evening social events, DEFCON26 will provide our students a learning environment of shared knowledge and proven skills they can use the day they return to work. Our five-day conference offers a diverse collections of in demand courses presented by leaders in their fields.

With an all-inclusive price of $899, select multiple classes for the 5 days, or you may select and pay for only the courses that fit your schedule.

We look forward to seeing you at DEFCON26.
