

Borrower(s) Consent to Provide Information to Guarantor(s)

Background

The Mutual Banking Code of Practice requires Bank Australia to provide a potential guarantor(s) with a range of information concerning a borrower(s) financial position.

Privacy legislation also requires that Bank Australia obtain the borrower(s) specific consent prior to disclosing this information to the potential guarantor(s).

In order to proceed with the assessment of your application for credit Bank Australia requires your written consent to provide the following information to your proposed guarantor(s).

Borrower(s) Consent

I/We hereby authorize Bank Australia to provide the proposed guarantor(s) with the following information about me/us.

Borrower(s) initials		Information to be provided to the proposed guarantor(s)
		A copy of my/our loan application
		A copy of my/our credit report from a credit reporting agency
		Details of my/our credit history with Bank Australia over the last 12 months which may include details about notices of demand, defaults, overdrawn accounts or other evidence of distress known to Bank Australia about me/us
		Copies of loan statements and other documents on request by the guarantor(s)

Name of Borrower

Name of Borrower

Signature

Signature

Date

Date