

Electrify Your Home: BOOM! Power offer terms

Effective 5 December 2024

Electrify Your Home: BOOM! Power offer terms

When you participate in the Electrify Your Home: BOOM! Power offer (“the offer”), you need to be aware of the following terms.

To be eligible for the offer, you must be an existing Bank Australia customer. Eligibility is subject to change and is at Bank Australia’s complete discretion.

Bank Australia has offered to pay for you to use BOOM! Power Pty Ltd (BOOM! Power)’s home electrification assessment and procurement service. Further information about this service can be accessed at boompower.com.au

If you decide to go forward and use BOOM! Power’s home electrification assessment and procurement service, Bank Australia will pay BOOM! Power to provide this service to you. In addition, in return for our payment to BOOM! Power, you consent to Bank Australia contacting you to ask you questions about your experience of the service and you agree to provide a response reflecting your experience.

Please note that if you do decide to go forward, the following additional terms also apply:

- Bank Australia is not responsible in any way for the BOOM! Power service or your use of it or the information or services that you acquire from the BOOM! Power service;
- Your use of the BOOM! Power service is subject to BOOM! Power’s Terms of Use, that is an agreement between you and BOOM! Power and Bank Australia is not a party to that agreement;

If after you use the BOOM! Power home electrification assessment to receive your household energy assessment you decide to acquire other goods or services from BOOM! Power or any third party suppliers or service providers BOOM! Power may refer you to or suggest, Bank Australia is not responsible or liable in any way for such goods or services or BOOM! Power or the third party supplier or service providers’ provision or procurement of such goods or services. These are independent arrangements that you enter into and Bank Australia is not party to any such arrangements.

- Bank Australia is only offering to pay the cost of using the BOOM! Power home electrification assessment and procurement service as a gesture of good will. We have not vetted or investigated any third party suppliers or service providers nominated or suggested by BOOM! Power. You need to take steps to assure yourself of required qualifications and that these are appropriate for your needs, and in compliance with applicable regulations.
- If you decide after the assessment you wish to proceed further, you are not required to use the third party suppliers or service providers referred to you by BOOM! Power. You may independently procure suppliers or service providers. You need to take steps to assure yourself of required qualifications and that these are appropriate for your needs, and in compliance with applicable regulations.

- We also want to let you know about the sharing of information between BOOM! Power and Bank Australia in connection with the offer. Bank Australia will be obtaining information from BOOM! Power about your energy types and usage and this may include some of your personal information such as, for example, your energy usage and the number of occupants in your house, or information about the types and completion of upgrades you may elect to proceed with. If you participate in the offer or procure a service from BOOM! Power, you consent to the sharing of this information between Bank Australia and BOOM! Power and to Bank Australia using this information and contacting you regarding your experiences. The purpose of Bank Australia collecting this information is to inform our evaluation of the offer's success and its impact, and for marketing activities.
- You can find more information about Bank Australia's privacy policy and notifications here and you can also find BOOM! Power's privacy policy here.

If you have any questions about the offer, please contact Bank Australia on 132 888.
