Nancy Biggar

Nancy Biggar, a Consulting Partner and Leadership Coach with Blanchard®, is a highly experienced consultant, coach, facilitator, and mentor who is passionate about helping others move toward the realization of their goals. Her open, warm, and energetic style engages people in proactive learning and stimulates their drive for growth and positive outcomes.

Nancy garnered her wealth of training and consulting experience throughout the world. For more than two decades, she has worked with a diverse group of clients in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and North America. Nancy is a Master Facilitator of The SLII Experience™ and highly knowledgeable in other core Blanchard® products, with extensive expertise in one-to-one and team leadership, leading people through change, and the science of motivation.

When based in Istanbul, Nancy was instrumental in forming the partnership between Blanchard® and The Management Development Center, which became Blanchard® International Turkey. Prior to that, she was a senior policy and financial analyst for Canada's leading cultural industries and agencies. Early in her career, Nancy participated in the renowned Niagara Institute's Leadership & Vision program for high-potential leaders under the age of 40. She was a lecturer at Western University in Canada, taught for four years in the University of Istanbul's International MBA program, and was a guest lecturer in the Executive Management program at Sabanci University in Turkey.

Nancy received her Bachelor of Arts degree (hons.) in History from University of Waterloo, holds a certificate in marketing management from Western University, and became an Associate Certified Coach through the International Coaching Federation in 2010.

Her native language is English, and she is proficient in Turkish. Nancy has always enjoyed playing tennis, sailing, traveling, and walking on any beach she can find.
