

MEET OUR EXPERTS

Joellyn Myers

Joellyn Myers, a Joellyn Myers, a Senior Leadership Consulting Partner Blanchard Leadership Certified Coach and Practice Lead for Coaching Essentials for Blanchard®, is passionate about helping leaders and teams build capabilities by accessing their full potential to create cohesive and high-performance cultures through connection.

Described as creative, strategic, analytical, and results-oriented, Joellyn easily connects with people virtually and in person by building trust, being curious and empathic, and creating a fun learning environment. She tailors solutions to the person, group, situation, or need. Her client-first approach drives partnership and collaboration to enable organizations to achieve talent development goals, build bench strength, and increase leadership and team performance at all levels.

Her professional experience encompasses serving as a learning and development people leader, organization and leadership development consultant, executive and team coach, facilitator, and instructional designer. Joellyn has supported functional groups in engineering, product development, technology, customer care, sales, and human resources. She has led competency design for people-leader effectiveness, created curriculum for enterprise talent development programs, and facilitated small- and large-scale learning events. Her ability to make a long-lasting impact comes from her expertise in adult learning theory, evidenced-based coaching tools, leadership effectiveness frameworks, group dynamics theory, change management models, and blended delivery methods.

Joellyn earned her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Marketing from Utah Valley University, a Master's degree in Instructional Design from Capella University, a Master's degree in Organizational Leadership Development, and a certificate in Executive and Professional Coaching from the University of Texas at Dallas. She is an Associate Certified Coach with the International Coaching Federation.

A native of the Pacific Northwest, Joellyn can often be found outdoors, hiking trails and looking for geocaches. She loves to create things with LEGO® and frequently hangs out with her meeples family and friends playing board games.

Industries:

- Business Services
- Consumer Products
- Consumer Services
- IT – Hardware and Equipment
- IT – Software and Services
- Professional Services
- Telecommunications

“Joellyn was an effective partner and facilitator who not only sharpened our skill sets in trust, communication, and emotional maturity, but also contributed to a fun and positive work environment.”

—Vice President,
Corporate & Finance IT Services

“Joellyn has tremendous knowledge of leadership development frameworks, and consistently finds both practical and approachable ways to teach and apply them across many levels of leaders while driving great engagement from her audiences.”

—Vice President,
Product & Technology

“Joellyn has this amazing ability to connect and communicate with people across all levels of an organization with just the right mix of vulnerability, strength, creativity, and humor.”

—Senior Manager,
HR Talent Development