

State	LTC Continued Education Requirements
AK	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
AL	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
AR	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
AZ	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in AZ) and non-residents (may complete in AZ or a reciprocity state). Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
CA	LTC Continued Education Requirements: Residents licensed <4 years: 8-hour CA course required annually. Residents licensed ≥4 years and all non-residents: 8-hour course required upon each license renewal. CA-specific training only; no reciprocity accepted.
CO	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 5-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
CT	No LTC Continued Education training required.
DE	Initial LTC Training: 3-hour course required for residents (must complete in DE). Non-residents are exempt. Refresher LTC Training: 3-hour course required upon license renewal for residents.
DC	No LTC Continued Education training required.
FL	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
GA	No LTC Continued Education training required.

State LTC Continued Education Requirements

HI	No LTC Continued Education training required.
IA	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in IA) and non-residents (may complete in IA or a reciprocity state). Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
ID	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
IL	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
IN	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in IN). Non-residents are exempt but may complete in IN for use in a reciprocity state. Refresher LTC Training: 5-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for residents.
KS	No LTC Continued Education training required.
KY	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course available in-state but not required. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course available in-state but not required. Courses completed in-state by residents or non-residents may be used in reciprocity states.
LA	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
MA	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. If using reciprocity, a 2-hour MA-specific course is also required. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
MD	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.

State	LTC Continued Education Requirements
ME	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
MI	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
MN	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in MN) and non-residents (may complete in MN or a reciprocity state, plus a MN-specific course). Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
MO	Initial LTC Training: available in-state but not required. Courses completed in-state by residents or non-residents may be used in reciprocity states.
MS	No LTC Continued Education training required.
MT	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
NC	Initial LTC Training: available in-state but not required. Courses completed in-state by residents or non-residents may be used in reciprocity states.
ND	No LTC Continued Education training required.
NE	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
NH	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course available in-state but not required. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course available in-state but not required. Courses completed in-state by residents or non-residents may be used in reciprocity states.

State	LTC Continued Education Requirements
NJ	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
NM	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
NV	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
NY	No LTC Continued Education training required.
OH	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in OH) and non-residents (may complete in OH or a reciprocity state). Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
OK	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
OR	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
PA	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
RI	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
SC	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.

State	LTC Continued Education Requirements
SD	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
TN	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in TN) and non-residents (may complete in TN or a reciprocity state). Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
TX	No LTC Continued Education training required.
UT	Initial LTC Training: 3-hour course required for residents (must complete in UT or a reciprocity state). Non-residents are exempt but may complete in UT for use in a reciprocity state. Refresher LTC Training: 3-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for residents.
VA	Initial LTC Training: available in-state but not required. Courses completed in-state may be used in reciprocity states.
VT	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in VT) and non-residents (may complete in VT or a reciprocity state, plus a VT-specific Medicaid course). Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
WA	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.
WI	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in WI) and non-residents (may complete in WI or a reciprocity state, plus a WI-specific Medicaid & LTC course). Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
WV	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents (must complete in WV) and non-residents (may complete in WV or a reciprocity state). Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required upon subsequent license renewal for both residents and non-residents.
WY	Initial LTC Training: 8-hour course required for residents and non-residents; may be completed in-state or in a reciprocity state. Valid for 24 months. Refresher LTC Training: 4-hour course required every 24 months for both residents and non-residents.