

CLEARING THE AIR

UNDERWRITING GUIDELINES FOR NICOTINE AND MARIJUANA

As you know, risk class plays an important role in the premiums your clients will pay, which is why we'd like to provide our underwriting guidelines for nicotine* and marijuana.

We want to help you protect as many families as possible. Here are a few reasons our underwriting process is geared for a wide variety of clients.

BEST RISK CLASSES AVAILABLE

Marijuana:

- Greater than 12 times per year is Standard Nonsmoker/Nontobacco to Standard Smoker/Tobacco, possible rated to decline, depending on type and frequency of use
- Preferred Plus/Preferred Elite: age 26+ and 12 or fewer times per year
- Rated: Medical Marijuana
- Living benefit and long term care riders available if:
 - age 26+
 - 12 or fewer times per year
 - Marijuana usage cannot exceed Table B
 - Life risk cannot be greater than Table D or Flat Extra greater than $2.50

Nicotine (includes all forms of tobacco and nicotine — see specific rules for cigars):

- Best rate class for product available after no use in past five years
- Current tobacco usage: Preferred Smoker/Preferred Tobacco depending on product
- Incidental cigar usage: Preferred Plus/Preferred Elite (12 or fewer times per year) Trendsetter® Super, Trendsetter® LB, Transamerica Financial Foundation IUL®, Transamerica Financial Choice IULSM
 - Transamerica LifetimeSM product — all tobacco use in past 24 months is smoker

* All forms of nicotine are considered tobacco — cigarettes, cigar, pipe, chew, snuff, nicotine gum/patch, e-cigarettes, vaping, etc. (Exception on limited cigar use listed above.)

AGE MATTERS

There are many benefits to getting older, but life insurance premiums aren't one of them. Most insurance companies write life policies using the "Age Nearest Birthday Method," meaning, the age your client will be closest to when the policy is written. That could put them at a year older than they are and increase their premium cost.

Transamerica writes all life insurance policies using the "Age Last Birthday Method," which bases the policy on the client's actual current age, no rounding up or down.

The future starts today.
