FINAL EXPENSES CAN BE ... EXPENSIVE

COMMON FINAL EXPENSE MISCONCEPTIONS

Many Americans believe Social Security will pay for their final expenses. They may be surprised to learn the government only pays a lump sum of $255 to those who qualify.<sup>1</sup>

For qualifying veterans, the Veterans Administration (VA) final expense benefit for non-service related death (if you qualify) is only $796 for a plot, plus a $300 burial allowance if not hospitalized by the VA at time of death, or a $796 burial allowance if hospitalized by the VA at time of death.<sup>2</sup>

PERMANENT<sup>5</sup> LIFETIME PROTECTION WITH GUARANTEED LEVEL PREMIUMS

- » Federal income tax-free<sup>6</sup> death benefit to your beneficiaries
- » Policy won't be canceled due to changes in your health as long as you make timely premium payments
- » Riders<sup>7</sup> add additional services and protection with convenience and ease of one policy
- » Policy builds a tax-deferred cash value over time that can be borrowed against. Outstanding loans<sup>6</sup> will reduce the death benefit by the loan balance due.
- » Offers option for reduced paid-up policy if your situation changes

<sup>6</sup>Loans, withdrawals and death benefit accelerations will reduce the policy value and death benefit and may increase the chance of the policy lapsing. Provided the policy is not and does not become a modified endowment contract (MEC), 1) withdrawals are tax-free to the extent that they do not exceed the policy basis (generally, premiums paid less withdrawals) and 2) policy loans are tax-free as long as the policy remains in force. If the policy is surrendered or lapses, the amount of the policy loan will be considered a distribution from the policy and will be taxable to the extent that such loan plus other distributions at time of lapse exceed the policy basis.

<sup>7</sup>Riders and benefits have specific limitations, may incur additional costs, and may not be available in all jurisdictions. For complete details, including charges, terms, and conditions of each rider and the exact coverage provided, please consult your agent.

<sup>2</sup> Benefits provided through the accelerated death benefit and terminal illness accelerated death benefit riders are subject to certain limitations and exclusions. Accelerated Death Benefit Riders are not available on the Transamerica Graded FE Express Solution.

<sup>3</sup> The optional rider information is a general description of how riders work. Refer to your policy quote for a complete explanation of the terms.
