

Foreign national Individual Taxpayer Identification Number guidelines

This program is designed for persons residing in the U.S., and intending to remain in the U.S., who cannot produce a current visa or green card but can demonstrate payment of federal taxes via their Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) – a Social Security-type number that will start with a “9.” Also eligible for the ITIN program are applicants that hold an employment authorization document (EAD) with a category of A10, C08, C10, C14, or C33. Applicants with a Matricula Consular card need an ITIN for any consideration under this program. This program is assessed on a case-by-case basis and is subject to change or cancellation at any time without prior notice.

Underwriting requirements

Proof of residency status: For ITIN holders, we will need the CP565 form or Social Security card. For EAD holders with one of the eligible categories noted above, we will need a copy of that card.

IRS Form 4506-C: This program requires, at a minimum, tax returns from the two immediately prior, consecutive Federal tax filing years available at the time of the application. The prefilled 4506-C, available on the Transamerica agent portal, must be used. Financial justification of the insurance need will be based on verifiable income and in accordance with Transamerica’s financial underwriting guidelines.

U.S. residence: Has resided continuously in the U.S. for at least the past three years, and present to the date of the application and delivery. At all times, the policy owner must maintain a U.S. mailing address and continue to pay all premiums through a U.S. financial institution.

Country of citizenship: Include the applicant’s country of citizenship on the application.

Medical underwriting: Applicants may require a paramed exam (or vitals) and labs.
