

the tiny saints show

For a long time, Tiny Saints brought the saints to life in an adorable and, well...tiny...way! What started with cute little keychain charms has grown and we are excited to embark on our BIGGEST project yet. The Tiny Saints Show shares the stories of the saints like you've never seen them before and is set to be jam-packed with our signature specialty: joy!

With the heart and humor of a show like Bluey, the depth & elegance of a movie like Up, and all the imaginative wonder of the Chronicles of Narnia, the Tiny Saints Show is a viewing experience for every age. Playful and intriguing for young minds, but rich and true for older audiences.

Hollywood isn't making shows like this, which is why we need your help! As an independent animation project we are relying on your help to get off the ground. Without your support, this can't happen.
