A proven team of professional lines experts with an exclusive program offering!

Protect your insureds from unforeseen legal actions and financial hardship or ruin because of alleged errors or omissions during performance of professional services that reportedly caused harm to others. This exclusive Miscellaneous Professional Liability program offers key errors and omissions coverage for a broad range of professionals from bookkeepers to event planners to computer and marketing consultants.

Provided by an A.M. Best A Rated carrier, the competitive program offers limits of up to $1MM/$2MM and premiums as low as $1,500. Any carrier applications are accepted, and response times are short. The program is led by proven professional lines specialists with more than 30 years of experience and supported by a dedicated team.
