PROGRAMS

Our Terrorism Risk Insurance Act (TRIA) Program coverage offers a broad and tested definition of terrorism that has paid multiple claims across the country.

Since 9/11, an event on U.S. soil has never been certified as an act of terrorism and therefore TRIA remains untested for its loss payment. Our coverage offers a broad and tested definition of terrorism that has paid multiple claims across the country. This program is available in all 50 states.

Coverages

- Limits available up to $250,000,000 for Property Damage and Business Interruption
- $1M Active Assailant sublimit covered as standard
- Sabotage covered as standard
- Threat and Hoax sublimit covered as standard
- Bespoke Terrorism Liability and Denial of Access non-property damage coverages available
- $0 deductibles available
- Full tailored coverage for unique risks available upon request

Features

- TRIA sets a high bar for claims to be made: large financial policy triggers, deductibles that have increased year on year since 2016 and Federal certification
- Our program addresses each claim individually, directly and promptly
- TRIA is a back-stop solution for the insurance industry, while our program is a solution for your clients
