

FY2023 Compliance and Control Review
JobsOhio Website Statement

The firm of independent public accountants hired to conduct JobsOhio’s annual financial audit conducted a supplemental compliance and control review for fiscal year ending June 30, 2023, pursuant to agreed-upon-procedures contained in a written agreement by and among the firm, the Ohio Auditor of State and JobsOhio, as required by Ohio Revised Code 187.01(J)(2).

“On December 7, 2023, the firm issued its final report of the results of the compliance and control review and on December 18, 2023, the Auditor of State released the report to the public on his website. There were no material findings as a result of this review.

“In accordance with Ohio Revised Code 187.01(J)(3), the final report was also provided to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President of the Senate. A copy of the report is available from those public offices upon request.”
