Ready to Go in Ohio

In Ohio, we encourage, foster, and facilitate a world-class innovation ecosystem where all things mobility come to life. We bring public and private innovators and decision makers together to remove barriers, make connections, and provide opportunity. So you can design, test, and deploy your mobility ideas, getting you (and us) on roads or in the sky more quickly, effectively, and efficiently.

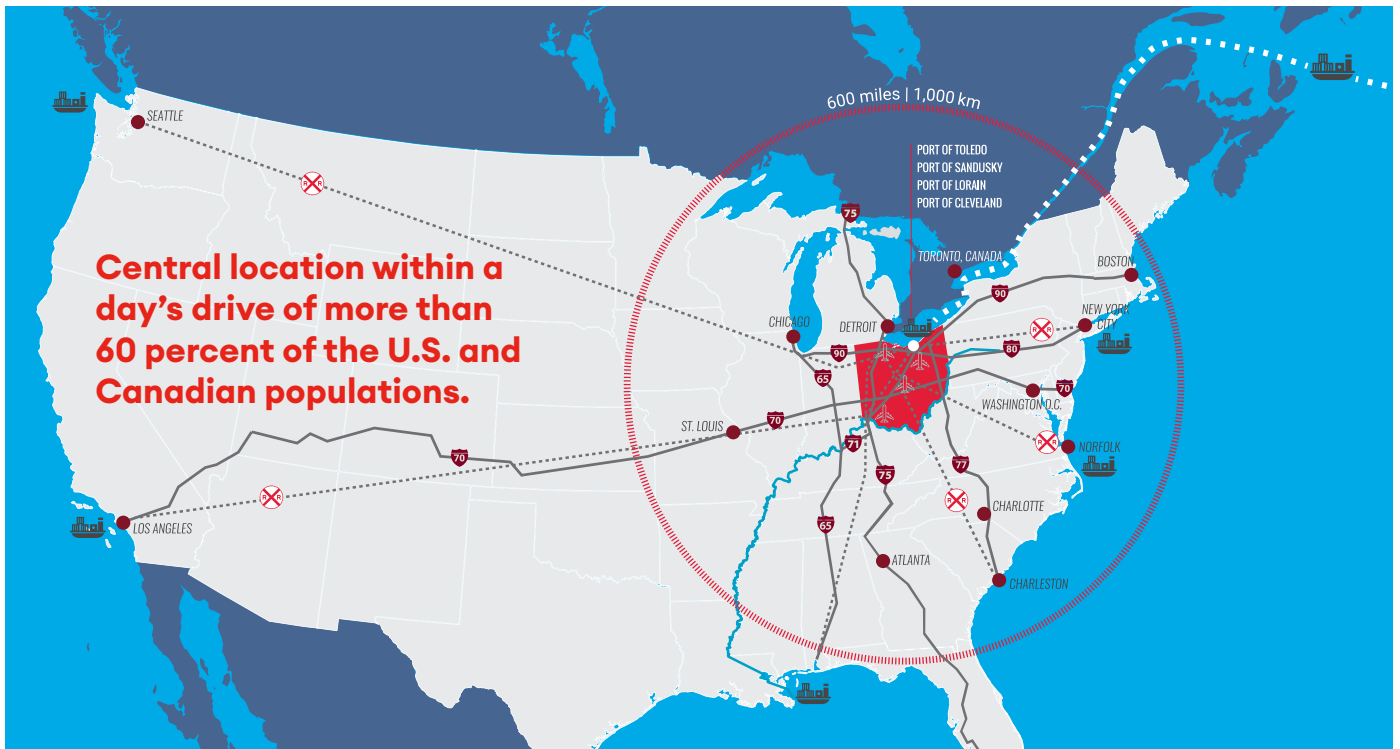

The Silicon Heartland with Global Access

The new home for Intel, located in the Midwest region of the United States, Ohio is an innovative state with a stable economy, diverse industries and welcoming communities, all of which position international investors for success. Ohio invites you to launch, grow and thrive here.

Ohio has the seventh-largest state economy, a dedicated, loyal workforce and diverse industries that help the state stand out as an attractive location for international executives initiating new operations in the U.S.

The state's location puts companies in the center of it all. Ohio is within close proximity to population and industry epicenters in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, New York, Detroit and Toronto.

Extensive Interstate system, within 600 miles/1000km of 60% of U.S. and Canadian populations.

Ohio ranks as 5th largest number of freight railroads and 3rd in total rail miles.

9 commercial ports on Lake Erie and multiple terminals along the Ohio River. The only Midwest state with direct shipping route to Europe for both container and heavy goods.

6 commercial airports plus CVG in Kentucky and 91 general aviation airports.

Largest presence of foreign trade zones in the Midwest.

Redefine Success with Statewide Resources

Ohio has the competitive assets to help executives achieve the next level of success. Statewide resources that make Ohio a premier location include:

- A strong business climate provides stability and predictability for companies. Ohio's $2.7 billion budget reserve, lower taxes and lower operating costs help support success in a growing economy.
- An integrated transportation infrastructure connected by highways, intermodal facilities, airports, water and low-cost energy that enables companies to obtain raw materials, produce goods and reach customers more efficiently and cost-effectively.
- A skilled workforce of 5.7 million people known for their productivity and a strong work ethic. The state's 200 educational institutions provide talent that is ready to tackle the jobs of tomorrow.
- A robust research and innovation network consisting of collaborative public and private organizations, accessible academic and clinical resources, and business supporters that helps Ohio companies further their competitive advantage.

Sites

Ohio is full of beautiful land with a wide range of sites and buildings that are ready for job creation and economic growth. As part of our free services for companies within our targeted industry sectors, we routinely perform in-depth statewide site and building searches. JobsOhio offers options beyond certified sites to meet each business's needs. If you are interested in having us perform a search on your behalf, please contact us and one of our project managers will be in touch to discuss how we may best meet your real estate and project needs.

Innovation Districts

Three key Innovation Districts establish Ohio as a global leader in healthcare, life sciences, and technology.

JobsOhio is investing $300 million to fuel the creation of three world-class Innovation Districts in Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Columbus. The goal is to create sustainable ecosystems of ideas, infrastructure, and talent where the world's top people and companies come to roll up their sleeves, innovate, and grow. These Innovation Districts are expected to inspire more than 47,500 new STEM graduates, fuel an estimated 60,000 new jobs, and generate up to $9 billion in annual economic impact to the state over ten years.

Cincinnati Innovation District

The Cincinnati Innovation District is anchored by The University of Cincinnati and Cincinnati Children's Hospital which lead a combined $450 million each year in research. This research results in discoveries that become the basis for innovative startups in the tech and healthcare sectors.

Cleveland Innovation District

The Cleveland Innovation District is a point of collaboration among world-class healthcare, higher education, and business institutions, creating significant research, development, and job opportunities in Northeast Ohio including, Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland State University, Case Western Reserve University, MetroHealth, and University Hospitals.

Columbus Innovation District

The Ohio State University and Nationwide Children's Hospital lead the Columbus Innovation District which collaborate and invest in economic growth, discoveries, and impactful career opportunities within the state capital.
