

Arcadia Bindery: What gets measured, gets done.

Too often, the data insights that matter most for busy executives and providers participating in value-based care are buried in cumbersome reports and reporting tools. As a result, engagement and performance in value-based care initiatives can suffer.

Arcadia Bindery empowers data analysts to create compelling, personalized reports using beautiful and insightful visualizations to highlight performance and opportunities for improvement..

These reports are easily distributed to the right audiences of readers—both executives and directors responsible for steering the enterprise and physicians delivering care throughout the network

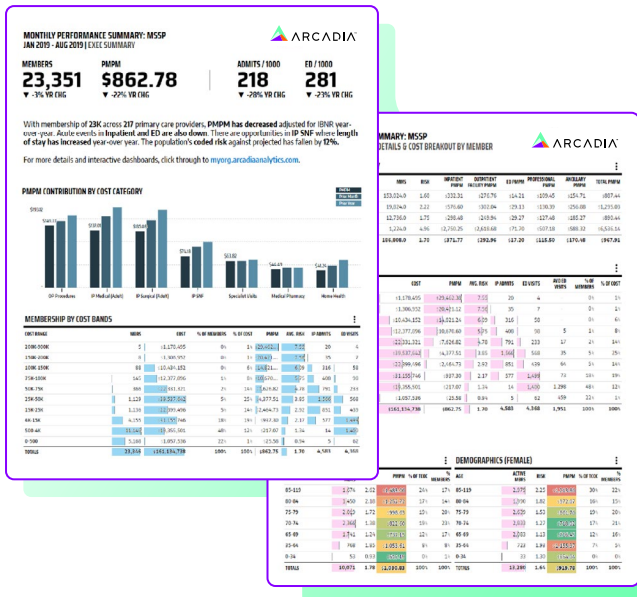

Distribute insights at scale

Maximize data analyst productivity

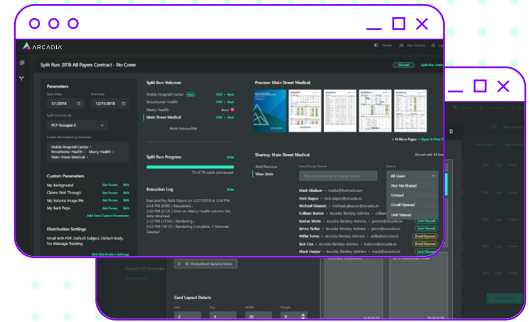

Accelerate value-based care performance

Arcadia Bindery

Reduce analyst time spent creating and sending reports and scorecards.

- A shared data analytics model across Arcadia applications to ensure consistency and accelerate report design
- Template gallery of reports and scorecards built by Arcadia's data scientists in partnership with leaders in value-based care
- Configurability allows for individual copies to be created for each provider, risk contract, line of business, and more
- Seamless data refreshes allow for a running history of performance
- Secure, automated delivery of insights through the application

Improve provider adoption, engagement, and performance in value-based contracts.

- Analytic content designed purposely for value-based care reporting and contract management
- Reinforce your brand and organizational goals with powerful data visualizations
- Concise reports tailored to the reader spur action towards value-based care initiatives... all the way at the edges of your network
- Multimodal documents—printable PDFs and interactive web-based versions—delivered securely via email
- Interactivity provides readers with easy drill-downs without hunting for data
