"I've got this!"

ONA COLD WINTER'S NIGHT, a baby hippo is born sooner than expected. Little Fiona is snuggled by the zookeepers and loved by her animal friends. She learns to eat from a bottle and take her first steps, just like other babies in the zoo. With each new challenge, Fiona lets out a snort, wiggles her ears, and says, "I've got this!"

New York Times bestselling illustrator Richard Cowdrey's delightful story is inspired by the real adventures of Fiona, the plucky baby hippo and internet sensation from the Cincinnati Zoo. A heroine for children everywhere, fabulous Fiona will steal young readers' hearts in this whimsical tale of friendship and perseverance.

On January 24, 2017, Fiona the hippo was born at the Cincinnati Zoo. She arrived ahead of schedule and weighed only 29 pounds, which is tiny for a Nile hippopotamus! The whole world watched as she learned to eat, walk, and swim. Fiona's challenges were big, but her spunk and strong will helped her to overcome every obstacle. She became an internet sensation and now even has her own show on Facebook!
