New School Solutions | Library

Follett is a leading provider of content, materials, and services for new schools. Whether you are opening the doors to a new school or reimagining existing spaces, we're committed to supporting your students' personalized learning with our custom solutions.

A Follett partnership means you can expect that we will:

- Make the process easy, keeping the project on time and on budget
- Work with you every step of the way from planning and ordering, to shelving, and beyond
- Deliver turnkey solutions to serve your school's needs and demographics

Trust Follett with your new school project - our world-class service is unmatched!

STEP 1 PLAN

Get expert guidance.

Receive personalized assistance from your dedicated new school coordinator and our team of academic experts.

Experience top-notch customer support.

The curriculum alignment team will research titles that align with your school's demographics, including guided- or leveled-reading needs, textbooks, and novel sets in print and digital.

Receive personalized core title lists.

Our expert librarians and bibliographers can develop custom core title lists for you to review and refine. All materials can be catalogued and processed to your exact specifications.

STEP 2 ORDER

Benefit from personalized order support.

We manage every aspect of your order from start to finish. Your dedicated new school coordinator will work with you to personalize every step of the process.

STEP 3 DELIVER

Enjoy a worry-free delivery.

We can offer complete unpacking, shelving, and clean-up help when your order arrives. We stage your customized collections, so your order arrives on time and shelf-ready in True Dewey order or by genre.

Experience long-term satisfaction.

We will continue to work with your school beyond delivery to further collection development and keep your library up to date.

World-Class Library, Software, and Classroom Solutions

The breadth of our PreK-12 products, services, and expertise ensure you will have everything needed for a successful opening day collection. See how easy it is to get your new school up and running with Follett as we exceed your expectations to provide a seamless experience from start to finish.

"We in the world of libraries are very fortunate and thankful to have such a very strong and reliable team of Follett professionals to provide support and guidance as we build and maintain library collections."
