

Clearing the Way for a Better Budget at Imágenes Computarizadas de Guatemala

Imágenes Computarizadas de Guatemala's (ICG) goal was to reduce their time spent consolidating and preparing reports from one week to one day each month. ICG accomplished their goal and more by leveraging a seamless implementation of Prophix.

The Challenge

ICG's accounting department struggled with manual work, preparing budgets, reports, and financial analysis for the company. These challenges came as a direct result of the organization's reliance on spreadsheets. They understood that they needed a pre-built platform to automate these processes.

Imágenes Computarizadas de Guatemala (ICG) is a strategic partner of the country's financial sector, performing clearing transaction services and electronic document processing.

Operating: Since 1999

Head office: Guatemala City, Guatemala

Annual revenue: $3.5 million

Prophix Customer Story

Benefits

ICG has dramatically altered their business processes – particularly in the way that the budget is prepared, analyzed, and presented. Combined with accurate reporting, they now have the necessary information available to help the business's leaders make timely decisions. Prophix has helped raise the credibility and the effectiveness of the operations, IT, and accounting departments.

“Prophix has given us better control of our budgeting, planning, and analysis than we ever had before. We also reduced the time required for our data consolidation from one week to just a few minutes each month.”

- Victor Chalo, General Accountant, ICG
