THE ROAD TO WISDOM ON TRUTH, SCIENCE, FAITH, AND TRUST Francis S. Collins

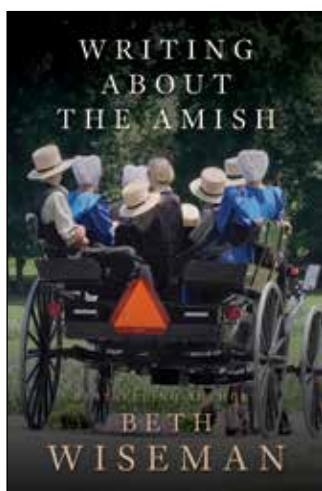

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

"A thoughtful, motivational guide that gives readers the tools to partner with others to resolve some of the biggest societal problems." — starred, Library Journal

In The Road to Wisdom, Francis Collins, a Templeton Prize-winning geneticist and former Director of the National Institutes of Health under three presidents, reminds us of the four core sources of judgement and clear thinking: truth, science, faith, and trust. Here is the moral, philosophical, and scientific framework with which to address the problems of our time, but also to guide us in our daily lives. This is a book that will repay many readings and resolve dilemmas that we all face.

IMAGINE THE GOD OF HEAVEN
NEAR-DEATH EXPERIENCES, GOD'S REVELATION, AND THE LOVE YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED

John Burke

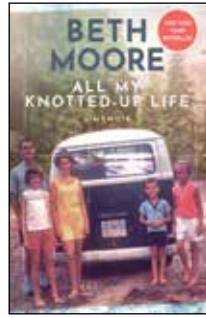

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

John Burke has spent the last three decades studying more than 1,000 near-death experiences (NDEs). His investigative journey started as a skeptical agnostic, when his own father was dying from cancer. Burke unveils the love story and characteristics of God, revealed throughout history and in Scripture, now illustrated by these encounters of life after death. You will realize God's love, power, compassion, and guidance are closer than you could imagine. And for such a time as this, people need to know a loving God is within their reach.

ALL MY KNOTTED-UP LIFE ★★
A MEMOIR

Beth Moore

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

PUBLISHERS WEEKLY BESTSELLER

WALL STREET JOURNAL BESTSELLER

2024 ECPA BOOK OF THE YEAR

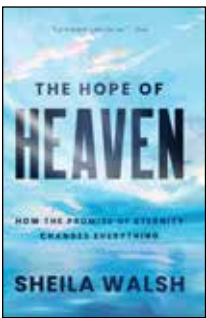

"The author lays down her beliefs with bold clarity throughout . . . The frank views expressed in this remembrance will divide opinion, but the quality of Moore's writing is indisputable." — Kirkus Reviews

Author, speaker, and founder of Living Proof Ministries, Beth Moore has devoted her life to helping women come to know the transforming power of Jesus. An established writer of many acclaimed books and Bible studies for women on spiritual growth and personal development, Beth now unveils her own story. All My Knotted-Up Life is told with surprising candor about some of the personal heartbreaks and challenges that have marked Beth's life. But beyond that, it's a beautiful portrait of resilience and survival, a poignant reminder of God's enduring faithfulness, and proof that if we truly took the time to hear people's full stories, we'd all walk around slack-jawed.

THE HOPE OF HEAVEN
HOW THE PROMISE OF ETERNITY CHANGES EVERYTHING

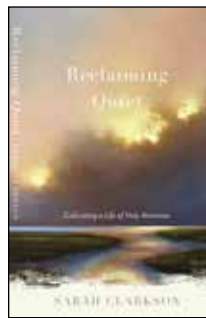

Sheila Walsh

Sheila Walsh's books have sold more than 5.5 million copies, and she reaches 100 million people a day as co-host on TBN. Have you ever wondered: Is heaven really a real place? What does heaven look like? Will heaven heal my pain and suffering? Will I see and know my family and friends? How does heaven change the way we live today? Walsh takes you deep into Scripture to answer these questions and more. If you are struggling or weary, this in-depth biblical picture of our eternal future can change how you experience every day you spend on earth. You'll discover not only that heaven is real but also that it is truly the most joyful place in the entire universe — and it is waiting for you.

RECLAIMING QUIET
CULTIVATING A LIFE OF HOLY ATTENTION

Sarah Clarkson

FREDERICK BUECHNER CREATIVE WRITING PRIZE

Sarah Clarkson, a three-time winner of the Frederick Buechner Creative Writing Prize, explores the need for the cultivation of quiet in a restless and distracted world. But quiet is, and always has been, essential to spiritual life, the only way we can turn toward the peace for which we were created. Reclaiming Quiet is an invitation to discover the profound, daily joy of cultivating a life of holy attention. Quiet is not limited to those who have great swathes of time. Quiet is our inner native land, the place to which we turn to find God already waiting, calling us beloved, and drawing us homeward into a life of holy and joyous attention.

BRAVE WOMAN, MIGHTY GOD

30 THINGS YOU CAN DO

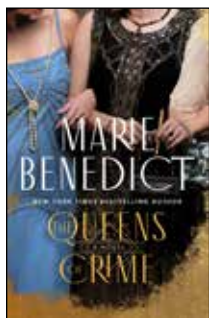

Laura L. Smith

Laura L. Smith reminds us of the steadfast love of God — of how He equips and empowers us. Through reflections on thirty resilient women in the Bible, such as Sarah, Ruth, Abigail, Elizabeth, and Priscilla — women in the middle of their own trials, falsely accused, in tumultuous relationships, in danger, burdened by responsibilities, balancing work and family — you can witness God's faithfulness in the ways He empowered them to do mighty things. God gives this same strength, wisdom, and courage He gave these women of the Bible, to you. Fully empowered by Jesus you can step into abundantly more than you ever hoped or imagined. You can be brave and do mighty things!

THE QUEENS OF CRIME ★

A NOVEL

Marie Benedict

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

EDITOR'S CHOICE 4

"In this excellent novel, Benedict vividly brings to life real Golden Age mystery."
— starred, Library Journal

London, 1930. The five greatest women crime writers have banded together to form a secret society. Led by Dorothy L. Sayers, the group includes Agatha Christie, Ngaio Marsh, Margery Allingham, and Baroness Emma Orczy. They call themselves the Queens of Crime. Their plan? Solve an actual murder, that of a young woman found strangled in a park in France who may have connections to the highest levels of the British establishment. Determined to solve the highly publicized murder, the Queens of Crime discover they're stronger together. But soon the killer targets Dorothy herself, threatening to expose a dark secret in her past that she would do anything to keep hidden.

BROKEN COUNTRY

A NOVEL

Clare Leslie Hall

EDITOR'S CHOICE 1

"Stirring and mysterious . . . fires directly at the human heart and hits the mark."

— Delia Owens, New York Times

bestselling author of Where the Crawdads Sing

Crawdads Sing

Beth and her gentle, kind husband Frank are happily married, but their relationship relies on the past staying buried. But when Beth's brother-in-law shoots a dog going after their sheep, Beth doesn't realize that the gunshot will alter the course of their lives. For the dog belonged to none other than Gabriel Wolfe, the man Beth loved as a teenager — the man who broke her heart years ago. As Beth is pulled back into Gabriel's life, tensions around the village rise and dangerous secrets and jealousies from the past resurface, this time with deadly consequences. Beth is forced to make a choice between the woman she once was, and the woman she has become.

"The very definition of a page-turner! This smart, original, twisty story had me gripped from the first to the last page."
— Liane Moriarty, New York Times bestselling author

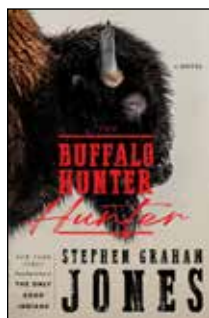

Sloane Caraway is a liar. Harmless lies, mostly, to make her self-proclaimed sad, little life a bit more interesting. So when Sloane sees a young girl in tears at a park one afternoon, she can't help herself — she tells the girl's (very attractive) dad she's a nurse and helps him pull a bee stinger from the girl's foot. With this lie, and chance encounter, Sloane becomes the nanny for the wealthy, and privileged Jay and Violet Lockhart. The perfect New York couple, with a brownstone, a daughter in private school, and summers on Block Island. But maybe Sloane isn't the only one lying, and all that's picture-perfect harbors a much more dangerous truth.

THE SAVAGE, NOBLE DEATH OF BABS DIONNE

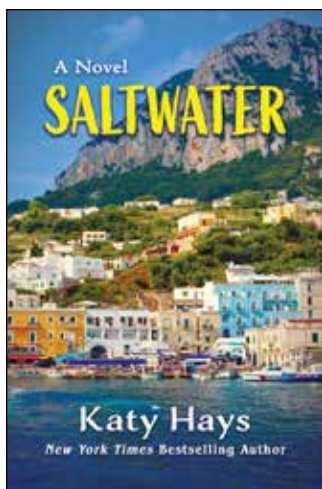

Ron Currie

"Currie [turns] to literary crime fiction with this funny series opener based on the lives of French Canadians in New England and starring an all-women criminal gang in their 60s." — Library Journal

Babs Dionne, doting grandmother and vicious crime matriarch, rules Waterville, Maine, with an iron fist. She controls the flow of drugs into Little Canada with the help of her loyal lieutenants and her eldest daughter, Lori, a Marine vet struggling with addiction. When a drug kingpin discovers that his numbers are down in the upper northeast, he sends a malevolent force, known only as The Man, to investigate. At the same time, Babs's youngest daughter, Sis, has gone missing, which doesn't seem at all like a coincidence. In twenty-four hours, Sis will be found dead, and the whole town will seek shelter from Babs's wrath.

One of the most iconic structures in the Four Lands is Paranor, the fortress of the Druid Order. Legend holds it was erected by an Elven leader known as Galaphile Joss. Who was Galaphile, and why did he establish this center of magic and learning? To bring order to a chaotic world and make life better for those trying to survive it. To this end, Galaphile commences building the citadel with the aid of the King of the Silver River. But there is one other who seeks dominion over the Four Lands. This foe has been corrupted by an ancient evil that will sow the seeds for some of the darkest times the Four Lands will ever face.

ROMAN YEAR ★★☆☆

A MEMOIR

André Aciman

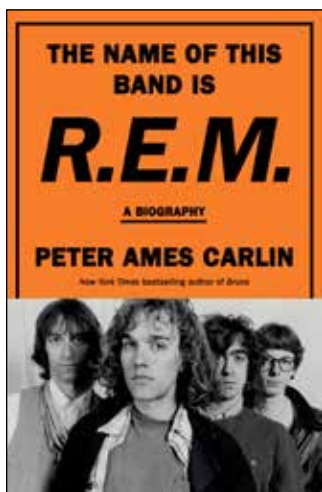

2024 KIRKUS BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR

"An absorbing exploration of the challenges and slivers of beauty that formed life for a refugee in Rome."
— starred, Kirkus Reviews

In Roman Year, André Aciman captures the period when his family first set foot in Rome, after being expelled from Egypt. All vestiges of their status vanished when they fled, and the author, his brother, and his deaf mother moved into an apartment in Rome's Via Clelia. Aciman's time in Rome did not last long before he and his family moved across the ocean, but by the time they did, he was leaving behind a city he loved. In this memoir, Aciman captures a portrait of himself on the brink of adulthood and the city he worshipped at that pivotal moment. Roman Year is a treasure, unearthed by one of our greatest prose stylists.

THE NAME OF THIS BAND IS R.E.M.: A BIOGRAPHY ★

Peter Ames Carlin

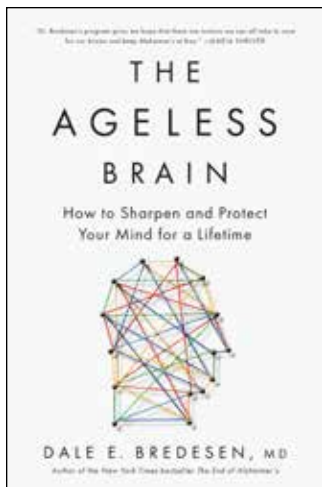

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

"Carlin assembles a solid, much-needed narrative of one of the major alternative rock bands."
— Library Journal

In the spring of 1980, a group of musical eccentrics came together to play their very first performance at a college party in Athens, Georgia. Within a few years, they had taken over the world. R.E.M. challenged the corporate and social order, chasing a vision and cultivating a magnetic, transgressive sound. Deeply descriptive and remarkably poetic, steeped in 80s and 90s nostalgia, The Name of This Band Is R.E.M. paints a cultural history of the commercial peak and near-total collapse of a great music era, and the story of the generation that came of age at the apotheosis of rock.

Marty Makary, MD

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

PUBLISHERS WEEKLY BESTSELLING AUTHOR

“An eye-opening look at how the American medical industry’s rigidity has stunted its reliability.”
— Kirkus Reviews

When modern medicine issues recommendations based on good scientific studies, it shines. When it is interpreted through the lens of opinion and edict, it can mold beliefs that harm patients and stunt research. In Blind Spots, Dr. Marty Makary explores the latest research on topics ranging from the microbiome to childbirth to nutrition and longevity, revealing the biggest blind spots of modern medicine and tackling the most urgent issues in our health care ecosystem. The path to medical mishaps can be absurd, entertaining, and jaw-dropping — but the truth is essential to our health.

ZETAS TILL WE DIE

A NOVEL

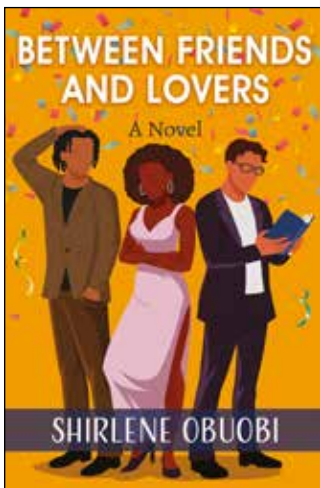

Amber and Danielle Brown

“The Browns toggle between Priscilla’s POV and transcripts from Travis’s trial, cleverly using the past to shed light on the present. It’s an intriguing puzzle.” — Publishers Weekly

It’s been ten years since Priscilla and her Zeta Phi Zeta sorority sisters graduated college. Ten years since they were all in the same room together. Ten years since one of them died. And now Lupé’s killer has been released from prison on a technicality, days before their ten-year reunion. Back together, the Zetas party like it’s 2012, and it’s wild, just the way it used to be. Maybe too wild. When one of them doesn’t return home after the party, Priscilla begins to realize that someone is out for blood. With the murderer circling closer and closer, the Zetas are forced to confront what really happened the night Lupé died and the secrets each of them swore to keep.

BETWEEN FRIENDS AND LOVERS ★★

A NOVEL

Shirlene Obuobi

“Obuobi’s second novel is a powerful exploration of finding yourself . . . a vulnerable, page-turning tale about trust, mental health, and second chances.” — starred, Kirkus Reviews

To her Instagram followers, Josephine Boateng is the brilliant self-love expert Dr. Jojo. But off-camera, Jo’s love life is nonexistent thanks to an unrequited crush on her best friend, rom-com heartthrob Ezra Adelman. Then Ezra shows up to his thirtieth birthday party with her childhood bully on his arm, and Jo realizes it’s time to take her own advice. Enter Malcom Waters, the world’s newest literary darling. For all three, the line between private and public is as blurred as the one between friendship and love, especially when Ezra decides he might want something more with Jo. The question is, can any of them risk defining those lines to create something real?

LET'S CALL HER BARBIE ★

A NOVEL

Renée Rosen

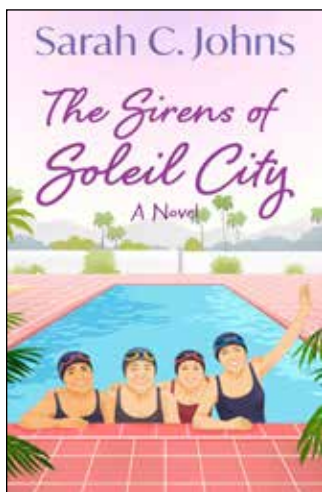

USA TODAY BESTSELLING AUTHOR

"A fictional retelling of Barbie's origin story, from Ruth's first brainstorm until she leaves Mattel in the 1970s, Rosen's novel is infused with pathos and wit." — Kirkus Reviews

When Ruth Handler walks into the boardroom of the toy company she co-founded and pitches her idea for a doll unlike any other, she knows what she's setting in motion. In 1956, the only dolls on the market for little girls let them pretend to be mothers. Ruth's vision for a doll shaped like a grown woman and outfitted in an enviable wardrobe will let them dream they can be anything. As Ruth assembles her team of creative rebels, she knows they're working against a ticking clock to get this idea off the ground. In the decades to come, each of them will have to decide how tightly to hold on to their creation. Because Barbie has never been just a doll — she's a legacy.

THE SIRENS OF SOLEIL CITY

A NOVEL

Sarah C. Johns

West Palm Beach, 1999. A phone call summons Cherie Anderson to help her two mothers: Dale, who left her when she was five and is facing eviction from her apartment complex, Soleil City, and Marlys, who raised her from that moment on and who's now dying. Cherie must also find a project to distract her daughter, Laura, whose marriage has fallen apart. The South Florida Senior Synchronized Swimming Competition seems to be the answer. The publicity from winning the contest, along with the prize money, could help save Soleil City. Over the course of a month, four women will realize that in life, there isn't good and bad. There's only trying to get it right.

NOTHING LESS THAN MAGIC

Stacy Finz

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Just one year ago, Chelsea Knight was living the life she'd always wanted. Marriage to the perfect guy, a thriving career, and a gorgeous condo overlooking San Francisco Bay. Then her husband, Austin, left her. Devastated, Chelsea seeks refuge in the lake cabin she and Austin now take turns using. When she arrives, the autumn leaves are exceptionally vibrant, and the locals are warm and welcoming. It's downright magical — and so is Knox Hart. But something about the idyllic hamlet — and Knox — seems too good to be true. When she learns the truth, her heart is shattered. Miraculously, Austin is there to mend it. It's everything she'd hoped for. Or is it?

THE LODGE

A NOVEL

Kayla Olson

"Readers will love Olson's . . . trademark blend of romance and pop culture and the unique spin on the traditional third-act conflict, which ultimately leads to a satisfying conclusion." — Library Journal

Alix Morgan just got her big break as the ghostwriter of a memoir by Sebastian Green, a former member of the boy band True North. And when he offers her a penthouse at a luxurious resort in Vermont, she jumps at the chance to work far away from her noisy, cramped apartment. Her career as an entertainment journalist has been building toward this dream job — after all, she used to cover True North and was one of the last people to interview former front man Jett Beckett before he disappeared. As she combs through her client's voice memos, Alix's work takes a complicated turn — and the mystery of True North's downfall may be hers to solve.

Faye Kaplan used to have a successful legal practice, but she much prefers her new life as a potter in Woodstock, New York. The only thing missing is the perfect guy. Not that she needs one. She's definitely happy alone. Until she finds her town papered with anti-Semitic flyers. Desperate for comfort, Faye drunkenly turns to the only thing guaranteed to soothe her — pottery. A golem protector is just what her town needs, and adding little details to make him her ideal man can't hurt, right? When a stranger mysteriously turns up the next day, Greg seems too good to be true, causing Faye to wonder if Greg's sudden appearance might be anything but a coincidence.

THE BUFFALO TRAIN

A Faraday Novel • Book 5

Robert Vaughan

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

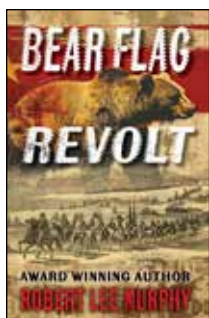

It started out as a silly idea to bring buyers back to Abilene. Wrangle some buffalo, put them on a train, and ship them to Chicago so folks back east could see the massive, shaggy beasts with their own eyes.

The concept seemed sound. But for John Creed, agent for the famed Faraday Security Service, it was anything but simple. First, Hank Miles was willing to do whatever was required to prevent the plan from succeeding. Hiding in the shadows was a silent partner. Creed's biggest threat, however, came from the man in black — an assassin who took pleasure in his work and would not stop coming until the job was complete.

American settlers rebelled in 1845 when Mexican authorities ordered them off their California homesteads. Fifteen-year-old David Brennan, who came west as a civilian member of Captain John Frémont's map-making expedition, secretly joined the rebels. The ragtag army captured Sonoma, declared independence from Mexico, and raised their hand-painted flag as they created the Bear Flag Republic. If Frémont had secret orders from President Polk to seize California, why did he hesitate to participate in the rebellion? It was Frémont and the Bear Flaggers who ensured California belonged to the United States. Why, then, did the American army want to court-martial Frémont?

In the wake of a brutal attack that shattered his family and razed his home to ashes, Cordell Beckett emerges from the ruins with a singular purpose burning in his heart — vengeance. With each step, his resolve strengthens, his skills sharpen, and his determination to track down the renegade Red Legs grows. Yet, as Cordell embarks on his quest for retribution across the untamed expanse of the newly settled West, echoes of his father's teachings tug at his conscience. Wrestling with the age-old dilemma of justice versus reprisal, he grapples with the haunting question: Is he driven by duty . . . or consumed by revenge?

JACK SLATER: REVENGE OR RETRIBUTION?

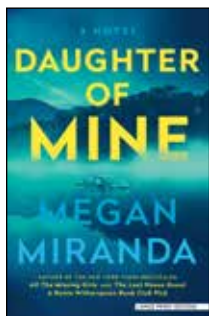

Jack Slater • Book 4

Johnny Gunn

Amos Warren, a ranching neighbor of Jack Slater, blames Slater for all his failures and often threatens to burn Slater out. Warren's foreman, Sonny Belafleur, is an outlaw using the Warren ranch in a cattle rustling operation tied to feedlot owner Blake Wilson. One rustling attempt brings the operation into focus for Slater and his adopted son, Rob. Warren's anger and hatred get the best of him, and he sends hired gunslingers to burn out the Slater ranch and kill the family. The former Orphan Train boy responds with overwhelming ferocity, ending any further threats.

When Eva and Jonathan hook up on the sleeper train from Florence to Paris, they think they'll never see each other again. Which is too bad, because neither has ever felt a spark like this for another person.

But love isn't on the agenda in their line of work. Six months later, they run into each other in Versailles. This encounter is not by chance, because Eva has been hired to kill Jonathan. She's a contract killer, but what she doesn't know is that he is too. Their meeting kicks off a high-stakes adventure across Western Europe. As the two get closer to completing their assignments, it becomes clear they are being hunted by something even more dangerous than love.

This is a tale of murder. Or maybe that's not quite true. At its heart, it's a love story, isn't it? Lana Farrar is one of the most famous women in the world. Every year, she invites her closest friends to her private Greek island. You may think you know this story. It had all the necessary ingredients for a press sensation: a celebrity, a private island, and a murder. We found ourselves trapped there overnight. What followed was a game of cat and mouse — a battle of wits building to an unforgettable climax. The night ended in violence and death, as one of us was found murdered. My name is Elliot Chase, and I'm going to tell you a story unlike any you've ever heard.

Romania, 1989. Communist regimes are crumbling across Europe. Seventeen-year-old Cristian Florescu dreams of becoming a writer, but Romanians aren't free to dream; they are bound by rules and force. Amidst the tyrannical dictatorship of Nicolae Ceaușescu in a country governed by isolation and fear, Cristian is blackmailed by the secret police to become an informer. He's left with only two choices: Betray everyone he loves, or use his position to undermine the notoriously evil dictator. Cristian risks everything to unmask the truth behind the regime, give voice to fellow Romanians, and expose what is happening in his country. He eagerly joins the revolution to fight for change when the time arrives. But what is the cost of freedom?

THE GIRL FROM GREENWICH STREET

A NOVEL OF HAMILTON, BURR, AND AMERICA'S FIRST MURDER TRIAL

Lauren Willig

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

At the start of a new century, a shocking murder transfixes Manhattan, forcing rivals Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr to work together. Just before Christmas 1799, Elma Sands leaves her Quaker cousin's boarding house and doesn't return. Her body is found in the Manhattan Well. Handbills circulate accusing Levi Weeks of murdering Elma. Levi's wealthy brother calls in a special favor. Aaron Burr's legal practice can't finance both his expensive tastes and his ambition to win the 1800 New York elections. To defend Levi Weeks he'll get a hefty fee plus headlines. Alexander Hamilton has his own political aspirations. If Burr is defending Levi Weeks, then Hamilton will too. Burr and Hamilton race against time to save a man's life — and destroy each other.

SHOW DON'T TELL: STORIES

Curtis Sittenfeld

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

In these dazzling stories, Sittenfeld conjures up characters so real that they seem like old friends, laying bare the moments when their long held beliefs are overturned. In "The Patron Saints of Middle Age," a woman visits two friends she hasn't seen since her divorce. In "A for Alone," a married artist embarks on a creative project intended to disprove the so-called Mike Pence Rule, which suggests that women and men can't spend time alone together without lusting after each other. And in "Lost but Not Forgotten," Sittenfeld gives readers of her novel Prep a window into the world of her beloved character Lee Fiora, decades later, when Lee attends an alumni reunion at her boarding school.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Anthony Fennell, an Irish journalist and playwright, is assigned to cover the underwater cables that carry the world's information. Sometimes the fiber optic tubes break, at an unfathomable depth. Fennell's journey brings him to the west coast of Africa, where he uncovers a story about the raw human labor behind the dazzling veneer of the technological world. He meets a fellow Irishman, John Conway, the chief of mission on a cable repair ship. Conway is a skilled engineer and a freediver capable of reaching extraordinary depths. He is also in love with a South African actress, Zanele. When the ship is sent up the coast to repair a series of major underwater breaks, both men learn that the very cables they seek to fix carry the news that may cause their lives to unravel.

THE BOXCAR LIBRARIAN

A NOVEL

Brianna Labuskes

When Works Progress Administration (WPA) editor Millie Lang finds herself on the wrong end of a political scandal, she's shipped off to Montana to work on the state's American Guide Series, travel books intended to put the nation's destitute writers to work. Millie arrives to an eclectic staff claiming their missed deadlines are due to sabotage. But Millie suspects that the answer might instead lie with the town's mysterious librarian, Alice Monroe. More than a decade earlier, Alice Monroe created the Boxcar Library in order to deliver books to isolated mining towns. Alice thought she found the perfect librarian to staff the train car in Colette Durand, a miner's daughter. Now, no one in Missoula will tell Millie why both Alice and Colette went out on the inaugural journey of the Boxcar Library, but only Alice returned.

FOUR RED SWEATERS

Lucy Adlington

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Jock Heidenstein, Anita Lasker, Chana Zumerkorn, and Regina Feldman all faced the Holocaust in different ways. While they did not know each other, each had a red sweater that would play a major part in their lives. In this absorbing and deeply moving account, award-winning clothes historian Lucy Adlington documents their stories, knitting together the experiences that fragmented their families and their lives. Adlington immortalizes these young women whose resilience, skills, strength, and kindness accompanied them through the darkest events in human history. A powerful reminder of the suffering they endured and a celebration of courage, love, and tenacity, this moving and original work illuminates moments long lost to history, now pieced back together by a simple garment.
