THE TIN MEN ★

Scott Brodie & Maggie Taylor Series

Nelson DeMille, Alex DeMille

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR'S CHOICE 2

Army CID Special Agents Scott Brodie and Maggie Taylor team up for their toughest assignment yet as they are dispatched to Camp Hayden to investigate the death of Major Roger Ames, the chief scientist in charge of the top-secret war games being conducted between a platoon of Army Rangers and a fleet of "lethal autonomous weapons." Brodie and Taylor find themselves at ground zero of the next generation of warfare and must uncover layers of deception to find the hidden hand behind the murder of Major Ames, and the real purpose of the activities at Camp Hayden and its terrifying arsenal of next-generation weapons.

FUTURE BOY

BACK TO THE FUTURE AND MY JOURNEY THROUGH THE SPACE-TIME CONTINUUM

Michael J. Fox, Nelle Fortenberry

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR'S CHOICE 8

In early 1985, Michael J. Fox's days were already dedicated to taping the hit sitcom Family Ties, but then the chance of a lifetime came his way. Soon, he committed his nights to a new time-travel adventure film being produced by Steven Spielberg — Back to the Future. Fox's nightly commute from a soundstage at Paramount to the back lot at Universal Studios, from one dream job to another, would become his own space-time continuum. In Future Boy, Fox tells the remarkable story of playing two landmark roles at the same time — a slice of entertainment history that's never been told.

QUEEN ESTHER

John Irving

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
EDITOR'S CHOICE 4

Esther Nacht is born in Vienna in 1905. Her father dies on board the ship to Portland, Maine; her mother is murdered by anti-Semites in Portland. Dr. Larch knows it won't be easy to find a Jewish family to adopt Esther; in fact, he won't find any family who'll adopt her. When Esther is fourteen, Dr. Larch meets the Winslows, a New England family with a history of providing foster care for unadopted orphans. The Winslows aren't Jewish, but they despise anti-Semitism. Esther's gratitude for the Winslows is unending; even as she retraces her roots, she never stops loving and protecting them. In the final chapter, set in Jerusalem in 1981, Esther Nacht is seventy-six.

THE WAYFINDER ★

A NOVEL

Adam Johnson

EDITOR'S CHOICE 8

The Wayfinder is a novel set in the Polynesian islands of the South Pacific during the height of the Tu'i Tonga Empire. At its heart is Kōrero, a young girl chosen to save her people from the brink of starvation.

Her quest takes her from her remote island home on a daring seafaring journey across a vast ocean empire built on power, consumption, and bloodshed. Far from a conventional swashbuckling adventure, The Wayfinder weaves a narrative about survival, self-discovery, and the history of the Tongan people. In this monumental literary work, Adam Johnson explores themes of indigeneity, ecological balance, and the resilience of humanity in the face of scarcity.

WORKHORSE

A NOVEL

Caroline Palmer*PUBLISHER'S SHOWCASE

At the turn of the millennium, Editorial Assistant Clodagh "Clo" Harmon wants to rise through the ranks at the world's most prestigious fashion magazine.

There's just one problem: she doesn't have the right pedigree. Instead, Clo is a "workhorse" surrounded by beautiful, wealthy, impossibly well-connected "show horses" who get ahead without effort, including her cubicle-mate, Davis Lawrence, the daughter of a beloved Broadway actress. Clo wades across boundaries, taking ever greater risks to become the important person she wants to be. But who really is Clo underneath all the borrowed designer clothes and studied manners — and who are we if we share her desires?

CHRISTMAS AT THE WOMEN'S HOTEL: A BIEDERMEIER STORY

Women's Hotel • Book 2

Daniel M. Lavery*NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Christmas at the Biedermeier Hotel means work. For much of the year, employment comes infrequently to Biedermeier residents. But during the Advent season, they're in high demand all over the city. Katherine explores the possibility of reconnecting with a younger sister. Lucianne goes into business for herself, running a male escort agency out of her room, while Mrs. Mossler attempts to solve the mystery of the Biedermeier's skyrocketing phone bill. And Patricia and Carol have been behaving very strangely recently. Christmas is a season of wonder and mystery, after all.

BOG QUEEN ★

A NOVEL

Anna North*NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
INDIE NEXT PICK

"A memorable tale of the unexpected linkages of history, land, and female power."
— Kirkus Reviews

When a body is found in a bog in northwest England, Agnes, an American forensic anthropologist, is called to investigate. Though its bones prove it was buried more than two thousand years ago, it is almost completely preserved. Soon Agnes is drawn into a mystery from the distant past, called to understand and avenge the death of an Iron Age woman. Along the way, she must contend with peat-cutters who want to profit from the bog and activists who demand that the land be left undisturbed. As Agnes faces the deep history of what she has unearthed, she's also forced to question what she thought she knew about her talent, her self-reliance, and her place in the world.

"Holsinger seems to have created his own subgenre of psychosocial thriller, spinning super-smart, propulsive page-turners out of zeitgeisty worries."
— starred, Kirkus Reviews

When the Cassidy-Shaws' autonomous minivan collides with an oncoming car, seventeen-year-old Charlie is in the driver's seat, with his father, Noah, riding shotgun. In the back seat, tweens Alice and Izzy are on their phones, while their mother, Lorelei, a world leader in the field of artificial intelligence, is absorbed in her work. Yet each family member harbors a secret that implicates them in the accident. Noah tries to hold the family together as a seemingly routine police investigation jeopardizes Charlie's future. Alice and Izzy turn strangely furtive. And Lorelei's odd behavior tugs at Noah's suspicions that there is a darker truth behind the incident.

"Fans will pounce on the latest from this beloved author of offbeat family fiction." — Booklist

Ever since her dad left them twenty years ago, it's been just Madeline Hill and her mom on their farm in Tennessee. Then one day Reuben Hill pulls up and informs Madeline that he believes she's his half-sister. Reuben has hired a detective to track down their father and a string of other half siblings. And he wants Mad to join him for the craziest kind of road trip imaginable to find them all. As Mad and Rube — and eventually the others — share stories of their father, they question what he was looking for with every new incarnation. Who are they to one another? What kind of man will they find? And how will these new relationships change Mad's life on the farm?

THAT'S NOT HOW IT HAPPENED

A NOVEL

Craig Thomas

From the Emmy-nominated co-creator and Executive Producer of How I Met Your Mother, this smart, funny, bighearted novel for fans of Steven Rowley and Monica Heisey follows a family turned upside down when Hollywood decides to make a movie version of their lives. Paige didn't set out to be a stay-at-home mom, but when her husband's screenwriting career took off right before they had a son with Down syndrome, the decision was made for her. Now, with their children nearly grown, Paige writes a memoir about raising a child with a disability. When a producer shows up, eager to make her story into a movie, it just might be the comeback her husband, Rob, needs. Meanwhile, Emmett doesn't understand why people think his Down syndrome is the most important thing in his life. Their daughter, Darcy, couldn't care less about the whole thing because she's hardly even in their mom's book. Will this "feel-good" movie be the end of them?

2025 FALLON SUMMER BOOK CLUB HONORABLE MENTION

"Beautifully written . . . Hamdan's compelling debut will provoke thoughtful discussion and is recommended for readers who enjoyed James McBride's The Heaven and Earth Grocery Store or Etan Rum's Evil Eye." — starred, Library Journal

Mia Almas has a secret. By day, she works as a media fact checker, and by night, she takes to the stages of New York City comedy clubs. She holds herself back in a lot of ways, until Phaedra, her stylish new neighbor, inspires Mia to take a few risks. As Mia pursues a forbidden romance with her boss, her standup gets better and bolder, leading to a surprise spotlight that exposes her secret gig. Worried that her rebellious act could mean big consequences for her reserved Palestinian-American family, Mia frantically dives into damage control. But all of her efforts to pull back from the spotlight expose a family scandal from the 1940s that could change everything.

THE SWORD OF LIGHT

A NOVEL

Heather Graham

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

The mystical Tuatha Dé Danann walked the hills of ancient Ireland long before the first Rí, or king, ever ruled the land. Before they stepped back to make way for mankind, they left behind objects of incredible power that would reveal themselves when most needed. Deidre, the daughter of a Rí, and Kylin, the son of a Northman who found peace and a home in Éire, begin seeing visions of these fantastical gifts. The revelation that a traitor exists among the many Irish kings forces them to work together using their newfound powers in defense of their homeland. As all they hold dear comes under threat, it may be more than just dreams that the two begin to share.

THE EVERLASTING ★★ ★

Alix E. Harrow

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
PUBLISHER'S SHOWCASE

"An epic time-travel fantasy about how stories from the past can shape our future."
— Kirkus Reviews

Sir Una Everlasting was Dominion's greatest hero: the orphaned girl who became a knight, who died for queen and country. Her legend lives on in songs and stories, in children's books and recruiting posters — but her life as it truly happened has been forgotten. Centuries later, Owen Mallory — failed soldier, struggling scholar — falls in love with the tale of Una Everlasting. Her story takes him to war and then into the past itself. Una and Owen are tangled together in time, bound to retell the same story over and over again, no matter what it costs. But that story always ends the same way. If they want to rewrite Una's legend, they'll have to rewrite history itself.

DAYS YOU WERE MINE

A NOVEL

Clare Leslie Hall

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Luke and Hannah live a happy and stable life in London, working in jobs they love as they prepare for the arrival of their first child, Samuel. All his life, Luke has known he was adopted, but he's never felt the need to seek out his birth mother — until he becomes a father himself. Spurred by the connection he feels to his son, Luke's search leads him to his birth mother Alice. Their first encounter is surreal, a sharp prick that barely scratches the surface of a painful past that neither of them has fully confronted. As the truth of who Alice is comes to light, she and Luke must reckon with the sacrifices they've made in the pursuit of love and belonging.

Little Nettlebed is a village steeped in the uncanny. But when the villagers start to hear barking, and one claims to see the Mansfield sisters transform before his very eyes, the allegations spark fascination and fear like nothing before. The truth is that though the inhabitants of Little Nettlebed have never much liked the Mansfield girls, they've always had plenty to say about them. As the rotating perspectives of five villagers make clear, now is no exception. Even if local belief in witchcraft is waning, these conflicting narratives all point to the same conclusion: Something isn't right in Little Nettlebed, and the sisters will be the ones to pay for it.

An Andy Carpenter Mystery

David Rosenfelt*EDGAR-NOMINATED AUTHOR
SHAMUS AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR

Lawyer Andy Carpenter's excited to finally relax. But there's a murder related to an old case in New Jersey. Two years ago, a gas leak in an office building led to an explosion that killed seven people. Jeff Wheeler was there and ran into the building to help. All he heard was the barking of a dog, Rufus, and was able to save and adopt him. Jeff believed one of the building owners was responsible for the tragedy. Now that owner has been murdered, Jeff is arrested for the crime, and Rufus is left with Jeff's sister, who begs Andy to take the case. Andy remembered Jeff's tremendous bravery and decides to help reunite the two.

"Series fans will enjoy this look back to the characters' beginnings, while newcomers will find a compelling mystery that might inspire them to jump into the other Andy Carpenter novels." — Library Journal

Andy Carpenter has spent the three years since graduating law school working as a prosecutor in Paterson. But having seen how the system never looks out for the little guy, he leaves to start his own practice as a defense attorney. He goes to the shelter to adopt a dog, where he meets his beloved golden retriever, Tara, for the first time. The shelter is crowded and Tara's been sharing space with a dog named Sunny. Andy discovers that Sunny's owner, Ryan Tierney, has been arrested for the murder of his ex-boss. But he takes an immediate liking to Ryan and his clear dedication to his dog and ends up with his first case.

A NOVEL

Scott Carson

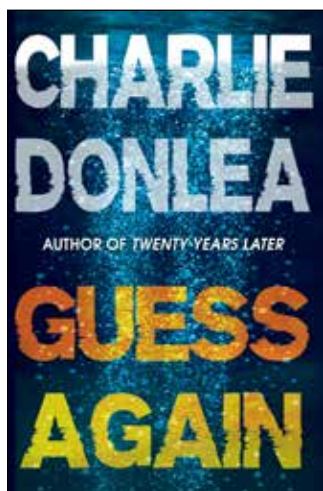

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

"In this striking thriller, Carson nimbly entwines a contemporary coming-of-age story with a tale of Cold War paranoia. It's a winner." — Publishers Weekly

On a clear October day, the American skies empty after hundreds of pilots refuse to fly. The pilots received disturbing, middle-of-the-night calls from their mothers, and each had a simple and urgent request: do not fly today. While the nation's military chiefs and artificial intelligence experts search for answers, a sixteen-year-old girl named Charlie on the coast of Maine watches a strange, silvery balloon drift across the water and toward her home — a place she loathes. Her new home is ground zero for a story that begins at a naval base in Indiana during the winter of 1962, when a physicist named Martin Hazelton discovered something extraordinary — and deadly.

SOME LIKE IT SCOT

A NOVEL

Pepper Basham

"Basham . . . delights with this cute contemporary . . . The grumpy/sunshine dynamic between the leads proves irresistible, and the Scottish backdrop is brought to life by eccentric side characters and plenty of local color and lingo." — Publishers Weekly

Travel writer and podcaster Katie Campbell has built a career as "Miss Adventure." Offered a three-week Edwardian experience, Katie finds herself immersed in the beauty and eccentricity of Scotland. Graeme MacKerrow's comfort zone has always been family, and after his sister's death, he's even more determined to keep those he loves close. The sudden intrusion of a six-foot-one American lass was far from his plan. How could their very different worlds share the same page of life's story when "home" is in two different places? But maybe home — and the future — isn't what either one imagined it would be. Maybe home is less about a place . . . and more about a person.

"[F]illed with magical realism, a moving story of a woman rediscovering her own power. Readers will cheer and cry with Rennie as she rebuilds her life." — Booklist

Rennie Hendricks is grieving the loss of her infant son. She had hoped a child would repair the cracks in her marriage to her husband, Tiny, but the tragedy has only served to illuminate his abusive character. To relieve some of the financial stress that inflames Tiny's anger, Rennie accepts a position at the local diner. One of the benefits is that she can bring meals to her Uncle Dixon, the man who practically raised her. Rennie thinks her elderly uncle is confused when he talks about communicating with his bees, but then she starts to see them glow, leading her toward safety time and time again. Could it be that these bees are trying to tell her something?

"The pacing is superb, neatly blending family dynamics, friendship, and tween romance with page-turning mystery, adventure, and horror." — Kirkus Reviews

Nathan never understood what was "fun" about secrets, probably because he's always had to keep a very big one. Although he appears to be a typical sixth-grader (with parents, homework, and a best friend, Victor), Nathan learned at an early age that his family is from another planet. Now, their time on Earth may be coming to an end. Nathan, his parents, and nine other families are part of an experiment that suddenly seems to be going wrong. Some of the experimenters, including Nathan's first crush, Izzy, are disappearing without a word. After his family is called back to the mothership, Nathan begins to question everything he's been taught to believe about who he is and why he's on Earth.

THE WIDOW

A NOVEL

John GrishamNEW YORK TIMES* BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Simon Latch is a lawyer in rural Virginia, making just enough to pay his bills while his marriage slowly falls apart. Then into his office walks Eleanor Barnett, an elderly widow in need of a new will. Apparently, her husband left her a small fortune, and no one knows about it. Once he hooks the richest client of his career, Simon works quietly to keep her wealth under the radar. But soon her story begins to crack. When she is hospitalized after a car accident, Simon realizes that nothing is as it seems, and he finds himself on trial for a crime he swears he didn't commit: murder. Simon knows he's innocent. But he also knows the circumstantial evidence is against him, and he could spend the rest of his life behind bars.

RETURN OF THE SPIDER

AN ALEX CROSS THRILLER

James PattersonNEW YORK TIMES* BESTSELLING AUTHOR

The suspense classic Along Came a Spider introduced an unsurpassed rivalry: Detective Alex Cross; the "human superhero" (New York Times) versus Gary Soneji; the "most deliciously wicked character since Hannibal Lecter" (Lexington Herald-Leader). But that wasn't their first meeting. Police discover that Soneji kept a murder book, "Profiles in Homicidal Genius," detailing his transformation from substitute teacher to hardened serial killer — including clues that imply missteps that Alex Cross may have made as a rookie homicide detective. Now, Alex must retrace the steps of that long-ago investigation and face . . . the Return of the Spider.

EXIT STRATEGY

A REACHER NOVEL

Lee Child and Andrew ChildNEW YORK TIMES* BESTSELLING AUTHORS

Reacher makes his way towards the entrance of a coffee shop. A young, stressed-looking guy in a suit brushes against him. Instinctively Reacher checks the pocket holding his cash and passport. There's no problem. Nothing is missing. But later in the day he finds something new has appeared in another pocket. A cryptic note. Reacher figures the guy in the suit must have planted it during their brief contact. Impressed by the guy's technique and intrigued by the message, he decides to find out more.

THE LADY ON ESPLANADE*Karen White*NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Nola is ready to focus on starting over in the Big Easy. She wants to get back to work on the renovations of her Creole cottage, and she is eager to launch a new murder-house-flipping business with contractor, closet psychic, and part-time nemesis Beau Ryan. Nola believes the shotgun house on famed Esplanade Avenue is a prime fixer-upper for her first project. It may have been the site of a woman's murder and the disappearance of an entire family, but the house will be perfect for new-to-town Cooper Ravenel. In addition to the elusive spirit of an angry young woman who accompanied Cooper to New Orleans, the house on Esplanade has its own ghosts. And the wet footprints from the spirit of Beau's mother have returned to let them know there is still unfinished business before she can rest.

BOOK OF LIVES*A MEMOIR OF SORTS*Margaret Atwood

Raised by ruggedly independent, scientifically minded parents, Atwood spent most of each year in the wild forest of northern Quebec. This childhood was unfettered and nomadic, sometimes isolated but also thrilling and beautiful. From this unconventional start, Atwood unfolds the story of her life, linking seminal moments to the books that have shaped our literary landscape, from the cruel year that spawned Cat's Eye to the Orwellian 1980s Berlin where she wrote The Handmaid's Tale. In pages bursting with bohemian gatherings, her magical life with the wildly charismatic writer Graeme Gibson and major political turning points, we meet poets, bears, Hollywood actors and larger-than-life characters straight from the pages of an Atwood novel.

KOOKY SPOOKY LOVE*A MELODY BITTERSWEET NOVEL*Josie Silver*NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Maplemead Castle is crawling with ghosts, and the new owners need them gone. When Melody Bittersweet and the Girls' Ghostbusting Agency arrive on scene, they quickly identify the main troublemaker swinging from the chandeliers. A century ago, stunning trapeze artist Britannia Lovell plunged to her death in the castle's grand ballroom, and has continued to haunt it ever since. But did she really just fall, or was there something more to her demise? Forced to work with Leo Dark, her scoundrel ex, and the irresistible reporter Fletcher Gunn, Melody's investigative powers are under the strain of a heart pulled in two directions. She needs her team in top form, but her best friend Marina's cake pipeline goes AWOL, her assistant Artie's distracted by a giant sausage roll, and the pug Lestat is scared witless by a lion. Melody has her work cut out for her.

WRECK

A NOVEL

Catherine Newman

Rocky, anxious, nostalgic, and funny, is living in Western Massachusetts with her husband Nick and their daughter Willa, who's back home after college. Their son, Jamie, has taken a new job in New York, and Mort, Rocky's widowed father, has moved in. It all couldn't be more ridiculously normal . . . until Rocky finds herself obsessed with a local accident that only tangentially affects them — and with a medical condition that, she hopes, won't affect them at all.

CURSED DAUGHTERS

A NOVEL

Oyinkan Braithwaite

When Ebun gives birth to her daughter, Eniyyi, on the day they bury her cousin Monife, there is no denying the startling resemblance between the child and the dead woman. So begins the belief, fostered and fanned by the entire family, that Eniyyi is the actual reincarnation of Monife, fated to follow in her footsteps. There is also the matter of the family curse: "No man will call your house his home. And if they try, they will not have peace" which has been handed down from generation to generation. When Eniyyi falls in love with the handsome boy she saves from drowning, she can no longer run from her family's history. As several women in her family have done before, she ill-advisedly seeks answers in older, darker spiritual corners of Lagos, demanding solutions.

CALLING ALL BLESSINGS

A BLESSINGS NOVEL

Beverly Jenkins

Tamar July, town matriarch, is being haunted by dreams of her humiliating wedding day, sixty years ago, when she discovered her intended, Joel Newton, was already married. The truth left her furious, heartbroken, and carrying a child, her son Malachi "Mal" July. Why are these dreams coming to her now? And is the great horned owl perched on her backyard shed somehow connected? When Joel's legitimate son wants to meet his half-brother, Mal, Tamar must deal with her past, her anger, and explore what it means to truly forgive. Tamar isn't the only one being tested. Teenager Devon July wants to be anyone but himself. As an eight-year-old foster child, he wanted to be a preacher. Now, he's decided to be a variant of James Brown — wig included — rather than who he really is, a boy who lost his beloved grandmother and is the son of a mentally challenged woman.
