Dear Colleague,

The ASCO Annual Meeting delivers an experience that cannot be found anywhere else in the world, offering a chance to be part of something bigger, drive meaningful change, and experience the future of cancer care first-hand. It's where the thrill of scientific discovery and the power of global connections converge. Each year, I look forward to immersing myself in the cutting-edge clinical cancer research presented at the meeting and engaging with colleagues from around the world in conversations that will transform care for our patients long after the meeting ends.

The 2025 ASCO Annual Meeting will feature over 200 sessions complementing my presidential theme, DRIVING KNOWLEDGE TO ACTION: BUILDING A BETTER FUTURE, reflecting the meeting's tradition of inspiring and advancing the oncology field with the power of the latest knowledge in cancer care. But knowledge alone cannot conquer cancer.

The ASCO Annual Meeting is also a moment to reflect on the importance of universally applying our evolving knowledge to build a better future for patients around the world. A most thoughtful educational program will accompany the high impact scientific research, providing you with the latest guidance on implementing these advances at the bedside. We must stay ahead of emerging technology, driving research on the use of new tools like AI for the good of our patients; empower advocacy, to ensure all patients have access to the latest cancer advances; and embrace our community, enabling every oncology care team member in every setting to provide the highest-quality care.

I hope you'll join me in Chicago at #ASCO25 and help intentionally apply the power of our collective knowledge to conquer cancer. It will take all of us to get there—but together, we are so much stronger than cancer.
