

Text Comprehension

Goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I will read this passage accurately and fluently. I will answer questions accurately using complete sentences that make sense.
3 Readings	First Reading Read the part to yourself. Underline vocabulary words that you do not know. Second Reading Read the part with your teacher. OR Read the part to your partner. Third Reading Reread the part to locate answers.
Part 1	When a dam is constructed, what happens to the water on the river? When a dam is constructed, the water on the river _____.
Part 2	What can the flowing water at a dam create? The flowing water at a dam can create _____.
Part 3	What is one thing that can be impacted when a dam is built? When a dam is built, one thing that can be impacted is _____.
Wrap-up	Picture/Part Match Write the correct part number under the matching picture.
Fluency CWPM _____	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Exchange Student Books with your partner. Read the text to your partner for one minute. Determine the number of words read correctly. Graph the number.

Summary Writing

Topic Sentence Dams have a number of possible benefits.

- Plan
- Brainstorm key details.
 - Select and copy three key details onto your paper.

- Draft
- Copy the topic sentence onto your paper.
 - Write one complete sentence for each key detail.

- Revise
- Whisper read your paragraph to yourself. Ask yourself, "Does it make sense?"
 - If it does not make sense, fix it up.

- Edit
- Check your capitals, punctuation marks, and spelling.