

STUDENT DATA AND PRIVACY

How to Request Your Child's i-Ready Platform Data

We take your child's privacy seriously. i-Ready is provided to schools, and student accounts are created and managed by your child's school. Your child's school controls what information is shared with us and we cannot share data directly with parents or legal guardians, except as permitted by your child's school. This ensures the safety of your child's data—your child's school is in the best position to verify your identity and protect the data being requested.

Contact Your Child's School to Make a Request

To initiate a request for a copy of your child's data, please submit your request to your school. Doing so will initiate the process below:

Upon receiving a request from your school, we will promptly assist in providing responsive information in accordance with relevant policy, contractual obligations, and applicable law.
