

Concept: Residences
Explanation	Teacher: Read the explanation. Students: Complete the sentence(s).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • People can live in all different kinds of residences, or homes. Each kind has its own special features. • People can live in... • Each kind of residence has...
Types Words or phrases that name types of the concept	Teacher: Read each type. Students: Repeat each type. Students: Circle the type to be remembered.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • house • apartment • townhouse
Type Descriptions Words or phrases that explain each type	Teacher: Read each description. Students: Repeat each description.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • house – a building where a family or group of people can live • apartment – a room or set of rooms located in a building with other sets of rooms and used as a place to live • townhouse – a tall house that shares walls with a similar house beside it
Type Details	Teacher: Read each type and details. Students: Echo read each type and details.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • house – stands on its own, not attached to other buildings; owned or rented • apartment – one part of a larger building; owned or rented • townhouse – connected to others in a row; usually has two or three stories; owned or rented
Examples	Teacher: Read each example.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The boy lives with his sister and parents in a house that has a small backyard. • Luisa took the elevator to her apartment on the fifth floor of the building. • Because of the shared wall in his townhouse, Roger could hear his neighbor playing music.
Check Understanding	Students: Practice saying the completed sentence to yourself. Students: Say the completed sentence to a partner or the class.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One advantage of living in a(n) __ (house/apartment/townhouse) __ is... • If I moved into a(n) __ (house/apartment/townhouse) __, the first room I would set up is...
How Used in Text	Teacher: Read.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In this story, you will read about two people who are packing up their things to move to a new residence.