

Passage 1

A Wish for Fish

Teacher Reads Jevon, the main character in the passage, is going fishing. Like all fishermen, he is hoping for good luck.

Jevon went down to the inlet to fish. “I see fish in the water,” he said. “Will I get my wish to get a big fish? Will I have luck?”

Jevon sat down on the dock. He got a rod from his pack and put it into the water. He sat and said, “Where are the fish?”

Then a fish bit. Jevon got his wish. A BIG fish!
A big bass!

Passage 2

In a Rush

Teacher Reads It was Jin’s first day of school and she was very excited as she hurried down the path. But an accident awaits her.

Jin was in a rush to get to the school campus. She ran down the path and did not see the rock. Down she went. She got a gash on her leg when she fell. She was upset.

Nick saw Jin go down and ran to her. “I can see the cut,” Nick said. “It is not bad. They will fix it at school.”

Passage 3

A Bit of Luck

Teacher Reads People often say that dogs are our best friends. Let's see how one dog helps its owner.

Zack went with his dog Ash to play. As they went down the path, Zack saw a tennis racket.

“Rush and get it, Ash,” Zack said. Zack got the racket from Ash. “It is my dad’s!” Zack said. He went to hug Ash and pat him on the back. “Ash, you got it back!”
