Independent Reading!

See pages 47 and 48 of this packet.

Use the questions/ prompts on the Discourse Card resource to start a conversation about something the student has read. You may talk about a text the child read in one of the lessons above, or anything else the child is reading.

Encourage daily reading. And remember, reading isn't just about the books on the shelves—it's about anything around you with letters! Turn on the closed captioning feature on your TV or read catalogs that come in the mail. The backs of cereal boxes work, too, as do directions to board games!

Running out of stuff to read? Grab some sticky notes, and label household objects, or make up new, silly names for things! Communicating with sticky notes, instead of talking, is fun, too—start with a half hour and see if you can go all afternoon. Reading is everywhere!

Don't worry about right/wrong answers when you talk about text—the important thing is that you and your student share a reading experience and have fun!

Word Learning Routine

Use the following steps to figure out unfamiliar words. If you figure out what the word means, continue reading. If not, then try the next step.

1. Say the Word or Phrase Aloud.

Circle the word or phrase that you find confusing. Read the sentence aloud.

2. Look Inside the Word or Phrase.

Look for familiar word parts, such as prefixes, suffixes, and root words. Try breaking the word into smaller parts. Can you figure out a meaning from the word parts you know?

3. Look Around the Word or Phrase.

Look for clues in the words or sentences around the word you don't know and the context of the paragraph or selection.

4. Look Beyond the Word or Phrase.

Look for the meaning of the word or phrase in a dictionary, glossary, or thesaurus.

5. Check the Meaning.

Ask yourself, "Does this meaning make sense in the sentence?"

Lesson 16

Using Context Clues

Introduction Sometimes when you're reading a story or an article, you'll come across a word you don't know. When you don't know the meaning of a word, often you can figure it out by looking at the words and sentences around it. When you do this, you are using context clues.

| Kinds of Context Clues | Examples |
|---|--|
| Look for a definition in the text. | In high school, Jim Lovell built his first rocket, |
| Look for a definition in the text. | a jet engine that could fly to great heights. |
| Find an example that will give you | Lovell's first attempt was a failure. His rocket |

| | crashed. |
| Look for a restatement. | A rocket is pushed upward by materials that |
| A restatement happens when the | are combustible. These materials burn and |
| word is discussed in a way that | release gases. |
| makes its meaning clear. | |

HINT Sometimes context clues can be found in a sentence before or after the word you're trying to figure out.

Read the paragraph below with a partner. Circle the context clues that help you understand the meaning of the underlined word.

Write the meanings of the underlined words on the space provided.

Jim Lovell had always been fascinated by rockets. He was interested in learning everything about them and even built his own rocket. Lovell applied to the United States Naval Academy but was rejected. After failing to get into the Academy, Lovell did not give up. He persisted, or kept trying, and finally succeeded.

After the Academy, he joined the NASA space program.

| fascinated: | | | |
|-------------|--|--|--|
| rejected: | | | |
| persisted: | | | |

Independent Practice

For numbers 1–4, use context clues to figure out the meaning of each underlined word.

NASA chose Lovell to command the Apollo 13 space mission. Lovell was in charge of two men and of making all final decisions. After they were in space for a little more than two days, Lovell and his crew ran into trouble. One of the oxygen tanks blew up. The explosion caused a leak in another tank, and now there wouldn't be enough oxygen for a moon landing. Lovell and his crew had to return to Earth. Their safe return was due to Lovell's capable leadership.

- What does the word command mean?
 - Α to study
 - to fly with others on В
 - to be at the head of
 - D to be part of
- 2 What words help you understand the meaning of command?
 - "in charge of" Α
 - "two men" B
 - "space mission"
 - "chose Lovell" D

- What does the word explosion mean?
 - a leak
 - В a bursting of something
 - C a lack of oxygen
 - D leaving outer space
- What does the word capable suggest about Lovell as a leader?
 - He is a gentle and patient leader.
 - В He is skillful at leading others.
 - He is harsh to those he leads.
 - D He is weak when leading others.

Lesson 13 Unfamiliar Words

Using context clues to figure out the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases will deepen your understanding of the texts you read.

- Read Informational texts often have words people don't use in everyday life.
 - Some words usually appear only in texts in one subject area.
 For example, you'll see the word fossil in science texts and the word geography in social studies texts.
 - Other words, called academic words, are useful in many subject areas. For example, the academic word process often appears in both science and social studies texts.

As you read, you can use context clues to figure out the meanings of unfamiliar words and phrases. Clues might be synonyms, antonyms, examples, or definitions.

Read the passage below. Circle the phrase conceived of, and underline context clues that help you learn its meaning.

Ancient Greek engineers thought of ways to make new machines from older ones. For example, they conceived of and built a compound machine called the crane. Their idea combined the lever, pulley, and wheel-and-axle into one machine. A modern crane is a compound machine, too.

Think What have you learned about figuring out the meaning of unfamiliar words? Complete the chart below to figure out the meaning of the phrase conceived of as it is used in the passage. Then explain what the phrase most likely means.

Lesson 17

Greek and Latin Word Parts

- Introduction English words come from many languages, including Greek and Latin.
 - A root is a word part that usually can't stand alone as a word. Sometimes one root is added to another root to make a word, as in the word photograph.

| Root | Meaning | Root | Meaning |
|-------------|----------------|-------|---------|
| graph | "write" | act | "do" |
| phon, phono | "sound, voice" | port | "carry" |

• Affixes are word parts, such as prefixes and suffixes, that are added to word roots to make words. You can add the root vis to -ible to make visible.

| Prefix | Meaning | Suffix | Meaning |
|--------|------------|----------------|-------------------|
| auto- | "self" | -ist, -er, -or | "someone who" |
| tele- | "distance" | -able, -ible | "able or capable" |

• As you learn Greek and Latin roots and affixes, your vocabulary will grow.

Guided Practice

Circle the roots in the underlined words. Write the meaning of each root. Then tell a partner the meaning of each underlined word.

HINT Remember, words may have two roots or a root and an affix.

- I have five photographs of Jesse B. on my wall.
- One even has an autograph on it.
- I've asked my mom if I could telephone Jesse B.
- She said I could just watch Jesse B. on television.

3 Your life story inspires me and many other fans.

The prefix in- can mean "within," and the root spir means "breathe." What is the meaning of inspires as used in the sentence?

- A causes people to become alive
- B causes a heavy wind to blow
- C causes people to faint
- D causes strong lungs
- I hear you are a very benevolent person, giving to many charities.

The prefix bene- means "well," and the root velle means "wish." What is the meaning of benevolent as used in the sentence?

- A surrounded by good people
- B showing good will to others
- C liked by many good people
- D hoping others are good

Over Bridge, Under Tunne

by Lloyd Frank

- 1 Mountains, lakes, and rivers can get in the way of people traveling from one place to another. There are structures that help people pass such obstacles. Bridges and tunnels help people overcome such barriers.
- 2 Bridges and tunnels are different in design and placement. A bridge is built over a body of water, a highway, or a railroad track. A tunnel, in contrast, is a passageway under the ground, under a body of water, or through a mountain. Bridges vary in shape and are often placed above ground or water. Some are even famous. The Golden Gate Bridge is one of the most renowned bridges in the world. This celebrated structure crosses over the entrance to San Francisco Bay and connects San Francisco to northern California. The Golden Gate is known for its length and height. But it is best known for its beauty. People come from all over the world not just to cross the Golden Gate but simply to look at it.
- 3 Of course, not even the world's most famous tunnel gets many visitors who just want to look. It's hard to get a good view of a subterranean passage. But since the Channel Tunnel opened in 1994, it has transported millions of people. The Channel Tunnel, or "Chunnel," runs beneath the English Channel and connects France and England. The Chunnel is a rail tunnel. The only automobiles that cross it are carried on special railway cars. The Chunnel is not the longest tunnel in the world, but it is one of the few tunnels that connects two countries.

Close Reader Habits

How can context clues help you? Circle words that are unfamiliar. Reread the article. Underline clues that help you figure out the meaning of the words.

17

- Think Use what you learned from reading the science article to respond to the following questions.
 - What is the meaning of obstacles as it is used in paragraph 1 of the text?
 - A things made below or above ground
 - B things that slow or stop movement
 - C things that help people travel
 - D things built through mountains or over water
- 2 Underline four context clues in paragraph 2 that best help you understand the meaning of the word renowned.

A bridge is built over a body of water, a highway, or a railroad track. . . . Bridges vary in shape and are often placed above ground or water. Some are even famous. The Golden Gate Bridge is one of the most renowned bridges in the world. This celebrated structure crosses over the entrance to San Francisco Bay and connects San Francisco to northern California. The Golden Gate is known for its length and height. But it is best known for its beauty.

Synonyms are context clues with meanings that are almost like the unfamiliar words. Antonyms are context clues with meanings that are opposite to the unfamiliar words.

- B Predators need to find shelter from storms.
- C An animal's shell helps protect it.
- D All predators have skeletons.

- B easy to notice or understand
- C shining with many varying colors
- D a small amount of something

Part B

Which phrase from the passage helps the reader understand the meaning of iridescent?

- A "next largest group of mollusks"
- B "have small holes in their shells"
- C "the inside of an abalone shell"

After univalves, bivalves are the next largest group of mollusks. When a bivalve is alive, the two parts of its shell are hinged. After the animal dies, you may find just one part of the shell lying on the beach.

4 Read the sentence from the passage.

The jackknife clam has an appropriate name because it has about the same shape as a closed jackknife.

What does the author tell the reader by using the word appropriate? Pick two choices.

- A Bivalves are the largest group of mollusks.
- B Jackknife describes the shape of the clam.
- C An angel wing is a good name for the clam.
- D Jackknife is a good name for the clam.
- E The clam looks like an open jackknife.
- F A jackknife folds into its own case.

Write

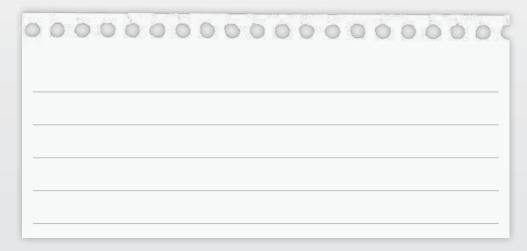

Short Response What does the author tell the reader by using the underlined word in the sentence below from paragraph 8? How do the details in the paragraph further develop this idea? Include one or more context clues from the text to support your response.

Tools for Instruction

Use Context to Find Word Meaning

Using context to determine a word's intended meaning is an essential reading strategy. Although students are often told to "use the context" to figure out the meaning of an unfamiliar word, they may need more specific guidance. To help students use context effectively, introduce specific types of context clues that they can look for in sentences and paragraphs.

Three Ways to Teach

Identify Sentence-Based Context Clues 20-30 minutes

Connect to Writing Explicitly teach students about the different types of context clues that can be used to determine meanings for unknown words. Then have students develop their own sentences with clues that help classmates guess above-level missing words.

- Display the following chart. Name the first type of clue, and read aloud the example sentence. Help students figure out a meaning for the italicized word and identify the (highlighted) context clues in the sentence, which give a definition for the word. Then guide students to tell how they can recognize definition clues in other sentences. Record a simple explanation in the "What It Does" column.
- Repeat the process to introduce the remaining types of clues. Each time, note signal words that emphasize the clue, including is, or, and other, and but.

| Type of Clue | Example Sentence | What It Does |
|--------------|--|--|
| Definition | An asteroid is a rocky body that orbits the Sun. | Tells the meaning of the unfamiliar word explicitly |
| Appositive | An animal that is a carnivore , or meat eater, may hunt for its food. | Tells the meaning of the unfamiliar word beside it, marked off by commas or dashes |
| Examples | The streets were filled with buses, taxis, and other vehicles . | Describes the unfamiliar word by naming types of it |
| Contrast | Lush, green forests receive steady rains, but deserts are bare and arid . | Tells the meaning of an unfamiliar word by describing its opposite |

- For independent practice, give each student two words likely to have known meanings, such as skyscraper, meal, author, and study.
- Tell students to write a sentence with their word, leaving a blank in its place. Challenge them to write a sentence with such strong context that listeners will easily guess the word.
- As students read aloud their sentences (saying "blank" for the word), talk about the context clues that helped listeners figure out the missing word. Repeat the activity, challenging students to write a sentence that uses a different type of context clue for their second word.

Identify Paragraph or Text-Based Context Clues 10-15 minutes

Explain that sometimes readers have to read the sentences before and after an unfamiliar word to determine its meaning. Choose a passage with a challenging, above-level word that is not defined in the same sentence but can be understood by rereading the paragraph. Display the paragraph with the word underlined, and model asking and answering questions such as these to determine the word's meaning:

- What is this paragraph about?
- Do the sentences around the unfamiliar word describe it in a different way, by giving a synonym or example or by showing a contrast?
- Can I make an educated guess about what the word could mean?
- If I replace the word with what I think it might mean, does the sentence make sense with the topic or purpose of the paragraph?

For independent practice, have partners choose another paragraph that includes one or two unfamiliar words. Have them use the questions above to search for context clues that will help them figure out the meaning of the unfamiliar words.

Use Multiple-Meaning Words to Highlight Context 10-15 minutes

- Explain to students that context clues can help readers clarify the intended meaning of a multiple-meaning word. Say, Although looking up a word in a dictionary can be helpful, it can sometimes be hard to know which meaning was used in the text when a word has several definitions.
- Display a list of multiple-meaning words. Then provide sentences using varied meanings for the words.

| fan | The fan cheered for her team. | There was only a fan to keep us cool. |
|--------|--|--|
| fry | The fry swim downstream right after hatching. | My dad will fry potatoes for dinner. |
| lap | I held the plate in my lap . | We ran one lap around the track. |
| strike | Watch the hammer strike the nail. | That pitch looks like a strike . |

• Discuss how the context clues in each sentence clarify the intended meaning of the word. Provide independent practice by suggesting other multiple-meaning words and asking students to give oral sentences that make each of the word meanings clear. Then ask students to choose one word and draw each of its meanings.

Check for Understanding

| If you observe | Then try |
|---|---|
| difficulty using context to define an unfamiliar word | confirming that students have sufficient background knowledge to understand the context. Ask students to briefly summarize the paragraph in their own words. Correct any misunderstandings, and proceed to model using the context to define the unfamiliar word. |
| errors in determining word meanings based on context | substituting students' definitions for the unfamiliar word, and verifying whether the inserted meaning makes sense. |

Section 2 Activities

Lesson 18

Using a Dictionary or Glossary

Introduction There are many places you can look to find information about words.

A dictionary and a glossary are two kinds of references you can use.

• A dictionary lists words in alphabetical order. Each entry has an entry word, the pronunciation, the part of speech, and the meanings of the word.

break (brāk) v. 1. to smash 2. to disobey 3. to do better than: Ina broke the record for the high jump. n. 4. time off 5. luck break into 1. to disturb 2. to start to do suddenly 3. to start a new job: He broke into acting.

 A glossary is a kind of dictionary often found at the back of a book. It lists important words from the book in alphabetical order. It gives the meaning of each word as it is used in that book.

carry (kăr'ē) 1. to move 2. to hold carry on 1. to continue 2. to act excitedly

The pronunciation uses special symbols to show how to say the word.

The part of speech is abbreviated. Here it is v. for verb.

When there is more than one meaning, each definition is numbered.

Sometimes a sample sentence helps make the meaning of a word or phrase clearer.

Guided Practice

Read the paragraph. Use the entries above to find the meanings of the underlined words and phrases. Write the number of the correct meaning above each word or phrase.

HINT To find the right meaning of a word or phrase, read all the definitions first. Decide which meaning makes the most sense in the sentence.

Hank Aaron broke into major league baseball in the 1950s.

A big break came for him in 1954 when he replaced an injured player. Aaron's talent helped him break Babe Ruth's record of 714 home runs. When Aaron hit his 715th home run, his fans broke into cheers. Aaron carried on hitting home runs until he retired in 1976.

Lesson 17 Understanding Vocabulary in Literary Texts

Figuring out the meanings of unfamiliar words and phrases in a literary text, including words about other traditional stories, helps you understand the text.

Read A story, poem, or play may include a word or phrase you don't know. Try using context clues to help you figure out its meaning. Synonyms, antonyms, and other sentences surrounding it often suggest the meaning of an unknown word or phrase.

At times, an unknown word may allude to, or mention, a well-known person or place from mythology. These ancient stories describe human behavior or beliefs, and authors refer to them to make a special point. To understand an author's meaning, you must learn about those significant, or important, characters.

Read the story below. What are the meanings of odyssey and locate?

The Search

As I strolled home after a day of fun, I realized I'd lost my best baseball cap. So I went searching everywhere for it. My odyssey took me far and wide and finally back home. Despite my long journey, I'd failed to locate it, that is, until I sat down. It had been in my back pocket all along!

Think How can context clues help you learn the meanings of unknown words and phrases? Complete the chart below to show what you have figured out about the meanings of odyssey and locate.

As the annual school track meet approached, all I could think about was defeating Anna Banks. For the past three years, she'd beaten me in the 400-meter run, and always by just a step. No longer would I be satisfied with second place, however. Dissatisfied, I planned to win this year, and I couldn't think about anything else. I became obsessed with beating Anna. My thoughts focused on one goal all the time—winning. Naturally, I did more than just think. I practiced my starts daily, and I ran and ran and ran.

Wendy Bary

- On the day of the race, I was eager to compete, and by the time we gathered at the starting line, I was really pumped. BAM—the starting gun fired and we were off! Anna and I quickly sprinted ahead of the other racers. When we shot across the finish line, I wasn't even certain who'd won at first. Then I heard the announcer—it was me!
- 3 Still breathing hard, Anna rushed over, smiling, and shook my hand. "You were great!" she declared. "Good race!" Right then, I realized that I'd been looking at the situation all wrong. Before, I'd been thinking of Anna as if she were some powerful enemy out to destroy me. But Anna wasn't my nemesis¹ at all; she had no urge to crush me. In fact, she had given me an opportunity to become a better sprinter than I ever would have been without her.

Lesson 19

Similes and Metaphors

- Introduction Authors sometimes help readers imagine what one thing is like by comparing it to something else. Comparisons can help readers picture what is being described by showing how two things are alike in some way.
 - A simile makes a comparison using the word like or as. Look at these similes. The dog's paws are compared to dinner plates. His bark is compared to thunder.

| Simile | What It Means |
|--|--------------------------|
| Alicia's dog, Ollie, has paws as big as dinner plates. | Ollie has very big paws. |
| His bark sounds like thunder. | Ollie has a loud bark. |

• A metaphor makes a comparison without using the word like or as. In this metaphor, the dog's size is compared to a mountain.

|-------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Ollie is a mountain of a dog. | Ollie is a very large dog. |

The Catfish

by Oliver Herford, The Book of Humorous Verse

1 The saddest fish that swims the briny ocean, The Catfish I bewail.

I cannot even think without emotion Of his distressful tail.

5 When with my pencil once I tried to draw one, (I dare not show it here)

Mayhap it is because I never saw one, The picture looked so queer.

Unmixable as vitriol and vichy²— A thing of fur and fins.

A feline Tantalus, forever chasing His fishy self to rend;

A Golden Vase and Two Bright Monkeys

adapted from a Tibetan folktale

Long ago in Tibet, two friends named Dorje and Sonam hiked through the mountains looking to find a rare plant root used in medicines. They searched and dug for most of the day, with no results. Suddenly a clang rang out! Dorje's spade had hit something hard! Eagerly digging, the men unearthed a large vase.

"Surely this is pure gold!" Sonam exclaimed, as he brushed off the dirt. He held up the rare treasure, which shimmered in the bright sunlight. "We must have the touch of Midas," Sonam joked.

"Not so fast," Dorje said thoughtfully. Then a sly look crept across his face. "Before we start living like kings, we should test the vase," he added. "Remember, all that glitters is not gold. As it happens, I know a man who makes gold jewelry. If he tells me the vase is genuine, I will sell it, and then you and I will share the money."

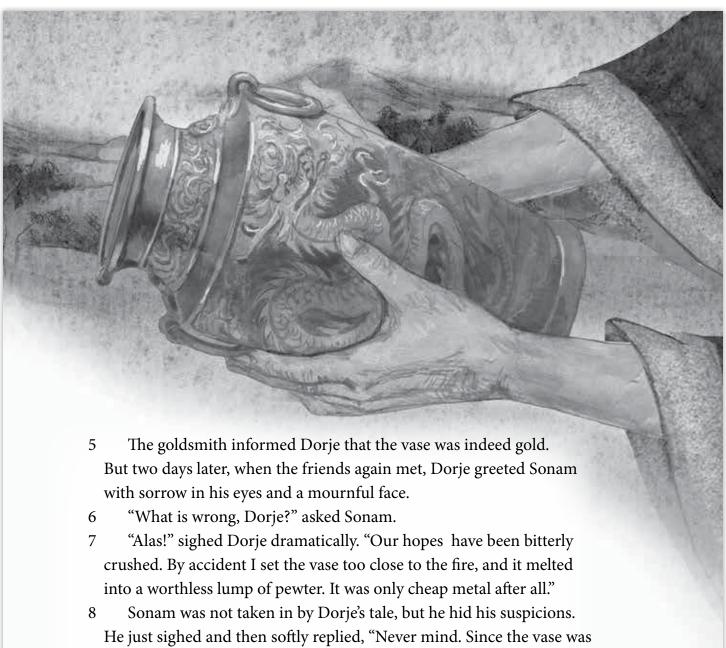

Trusting his friend, Sonam gave Dorje the vase. The two friends parted, agreeing to meet in two days to divide any profits from the sale of the vase.

- worth nothing, nothing has been lost."
- Relieved that Sonam had taken the bad news so well, Dorje invited him to stay overnight with his family.
- 10 The next morning Sonam said, "Friend Dorje, I want to thank you for your efforts with the vase and repay you as you deserve. May I invite your two dear children to visit my home in the country? They can play with my pet rabbits, swim in my lake, and breathe fresh air. Let them come home with me for a nice vacation!"
- As soon as the children heard of the plan, they pestered and 11 pestered until their parents agreed.

- Soon Sonam set off for home with the children for company. Eventually 12 they came to a place called Monkey Hill, the home of many wild monkeys. Sonam captured two young creatures and put them in a small cage. "We will take these little fellows home as pets. You can play with them if you treat them kindly," he explained. "I will name a monkey after each of you, we'll teach them tricks, and they will be your twins!"
- 13 Quick learners, the young monkeys soon imitated the way the children tilted their heads or moved in a certain way. Sonam and the children spent many hours together, laughing at the way the monkeys mimicked whatever the children did.
- 14 Then came the last day of vacation. Sonam gave each child a basket and shooed them outside. "Walk up the mountain to gather berries and fruits," he said. "We will surprise your father with a tasty treat before you return home."
- Then Sonam waited. Hearing Dorje approach, he sat down with the 15 monkeys. Holding each one gently, he put on a tragic face.
- "What is wrong, my friend?" asked Dorje. 16
- "Alas!" sighed Sonam. "These are now your lovely children. You see, I took 17 them to Monkey Hill. But I accidentally allowed them too near the beasts. Your children were transformed into these monkeys, right before my eyes!"
- 18 Sonam called the monkeys by name, and they began their tricks. They imitated the way Dorje's children jumped, walked, and even smiled, just as they had been taught. At first, Dorje was speechless. "H-h-how can this be?" he sputtered. "Is such a thing even possible?"
- 19 "It was a freak accident," Sonam replied. "After all, strange things do happen from time to time. Why, I know of a recent case in which a gold vase was turned into cheap metal." Then a twinkle crept into his eyes.
- 20 "Oh!" was all Dorje could say at first. Then a look of shame and relief spread over his face. "Now I understand, my friend," he said. "Keeping the money for the vase was dishonest. I will gladly hand over what I owe you, if you will pardon my foolish greed."
- 21 Just then, Dorje's children ran in and hugged their father. All was gradually forgiven, and Sonam and Dorje remained friends for life.
- 22 Dorje would often retell the tale of the bright monkeys. And he would always end by saying, "I learned a valuable lesson that day. As you know, a true friend is a treasure greater than gold."

- Think Use what you learned from reading the folktale to respond to the following questions.
- In Greek mythology, King Midas was granted the power to turn any object into gold simply by touching it. Why did the author use the phrase "the touch of Midas" in paragraph 2?
 - A to show that Dorje and Sonam have Midas-like powers because they turned the vase they found into gold
 - B to compare Dorje and Sonam's good fortune in finding the vase to Midas's ability to make gold
 - C to show that Sonam is well educated, while Dorje is unfamiliar with the story of King Midas
 - D to compare Dorje and Sonam's rare golden treasure to similar treasures owned by rich kings like Midas
- This question has two parts. First, answer Part A. Then answer Part B.

Part A

What is the best meaning of the word pewter in paragraph 7?

- A a metal that shines like gold
- B a metal that is soft and melts easily
- C a metal that is not costly
- D a metal that is not useful

Part B

Underline two story details that support the answer to Part A.

"Alas!" sighed Dorje dramatically. "Our hopes have been bitterly crushed. By accident I set the vase too close to the fire, and it melted into a worthless lump of pewter. It was only cheap metal after all."

This question has two parts. First, answer Part A. Then answer Part B.

Part A

What is the meaning of the word mimicked as it is used in paragraph 13 of "A Golden Vase and Two Bright Monkeys"?

- A tried

- D copied

Part B

Circle one word in the paragraph below that helps the reader understand the meaning of mimicked.

Quick learners, the young monkeys soon imitated the way the children tilted their heads or moved in a certain way. Sonam and the children spent many hours together, laughing

In the paragraphs 17 and 18 shown below from the story, one word has the following definition: "to change completely in appearance or structure." Underline the word that best fits the definition.

"Alas!" sighed Sonam. "These are now your lovely children. You see, I took them to Monkey Hill. But I accidentally allowed them too near the beasts. Your children were transformed into these monkeys, right before my eyes!"

Sonam called the monkeys by name, and they began their tricks. They imitated the way Dorje's children jumped, walked, and even smiled, just as they had been taught.

Tools for Instruction

Identify Word Roots

Word analysis is fairly straightforward when words break apart into clearly recognizable base words and affixes. However, a meaningful unit is often a word root—a letter group that conveys meaning but cannot stand alone, such as rupt in disrupt. Learning how word roots contribute to word meaning will help students understand more words as they read. These skills are especially important as students begin to read increasingly sophisticated content-area texts.

Step by Step 30-45 minutes

Introduce and explain word roots.

• Display the following words, and draw attention to the shared root tele by underlining it.

television telephone telescope

- Explain that tele is a word root. Word roots are parts of words that have meaning but cannot stand alone as complete words. They are used to form other words.
- Say, The word root tele means "at a distance." How does the meaning of tele relate to the meaning of each of these words? (Sample responses: television shows things from a distance; telephones allow people to talk over distances; telescopes help people see things from a distance.)

Model interpreting word roots and word meanings.

• Display a group of familiar words with a shared root, along with the Word Roots Chart.

vision visitor invisible visibility

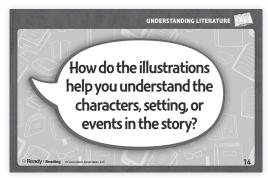

- Model how to use known meanings to figure out the meaning of unknown words. Say, I know vision is the ability to see, and a visitor goes to see someone or something. If something is invisible, no one can see it. Visibility—what could that mean? The other words had something to do with seeing, so I think visibility has to do with being able to see clearly—how easy it is to see something.
- Identify the word root vis and its meaning "to see." Underline vis in each word. Then record your thinking in a word roots chart.

| Word | Word Meaning | Word Root | Word Root Meaning |
|------------|--|-----------|--------------------------|
| vision | the act of seeing | vis | to see |
| visitor | someone who goes to see someone or something | vis | to see |
| invisible | something that cannot be seen | vis | to see |
| visibility | how easily something can be seen | vis | to see |
