Dad's Meals

Dad liked to fix meals at home. He made new foods and got lots of joy from it. The problem was that Mom and Jed did not get lots of joy from eating some of those new foods. One night, Dad broiled chicken livers on foil under high heat. The livers were dry, not moist. Mom and Jed did not say a thing. They just ate and thanked Dad.

Another night, Dad served raw oysters. They were like slime. They smelled like the sea, so Jed had to pinch his nose to eat them.

Mom and Jed did not want to spoil Dad's joy. So they could not avoid his new foods. Then one night Dad served a soybean loaf, sort of like a meatloaf. It was not a disappointment at all. It was a perfect meal! Maybe Mom and Jed would enjoy Dad's meals from this point on.
