

Stop Feeding the Sheep!

Part 1

Teacher Reads Laila and Colleen work on a farm taking care of sheep. They recently changed the kind of grain they feed the sheep. One day, Laila receives a letter with a warning about the grain. Laila panics: she feels scared and nervous. Let's learn about the warning.

Laila looked at the mail. She saw this: "You must 10 NOT feed the grain to the sheep. The grain is bad.
21 The sheep will get sick!"
26 The sheep were at the creek with Colleen. Laila
35 needed to get there—and fast! She had to tell Colleen
46 not to feed the grain to the sheep. Laila ran to the 58 truck and jumped in. The wheels spun, and she was off
69 in a flash!

Part 2

Teacher Reads Read on to find out what Laila must do to find Colleen and the sheep.

72 "The best way to get to the creek is Green
82 Leaf Trail," Laila said. "After I get there and speak
92 to Colleen, I can rest. Maybe she has not fed the 103 sheep yet!"
105 Laila did not go fast because the mist was thick.
115 The truck went down the trail, which had lots of 125 bumps. Then Laila saw the creek. She left the truck
135 next to a tree and ran down the steep trail.

Part 3

Teacher Reads Keep reading to find out if Laila will get to the creek in time to help the sheep.

145 When Laila reached the creek, she did not see
154 Colleen. She ran in the mist and screamed, “Colleen!
163 Colleen! Are you there?” At last, she saw Colleen.
172 “Look at this,” said Laila. “It was in the mail. You must 184 not feed the grain to the sheep. The grain is bad, and
196 the sheep will get sick!”
201 Colleen did not speak. She ran to the sheep, picked
211 up the pail of grain, and yelled, “Go, sheep! Go!” Then 222 Colleen ran back to Laila with the pail of grain. “The 233 sheep did not eat the grain!” she exclaimed. “They are
243 OK! Thank you, Laila!”
