

Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) Planner

Data from the student's Record Book can support inclusion in the Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) by viewing the student's strengths and needs through the lens of environment. Using the LRE Planner throughout the year can help you keep track of the student's skills in different environments so you can identify and discuss the most inclusive environments for the student.

Class Activity is the environment in which you are observing the student's strengths and needs. Some activities to consider choosing from for this column are the following:

- Morning Routine
- Breakfast
- Group Work
- Independent Work
- Whole Group Lessons / Carpet
- Reading
- Writing
- Math
- Lunch
- Related Arts / Special Areas
- Recess
- Transitions
- Dismissal

Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) Planner

Student Name:

Class Activity	Present Level of Support: high / average / low	Student's Strengths	Student's Needs	Notes about increasing inclusion for this area