

Ready Reading's rigorous yet supportive content makes today's demanding standards reachable for all students. Using complex, authentic texts, Ready Reading provides instruction and practice designed to engage students and help build strong, independent readers.

Program Components

Ready Reading is a print program that includes both student and teacher resources as well as access to customer support. Available for Grades K–8, districts/schools may purchase individual grade levels based on their needs. Specific program components consist of the following:

- Student Instruction Books:
 - Unit Interim Assessments
 - Language Handbook
 - Glossary of Terms
- Teacher Resource Books:
 - Lesson Pacing Guides
 - Learning Progression Charts
 - English Language Learners Tips
 - DOK Level Chart
- Unlimited access via toll-free telephone to our Customer Service team

Ready Reading:

- Provides opportunities for close reading of complex, authentic text from a wide range of genres
- Uses a flexible model that works with a variety of language arts curricula
- Is designed to provide a 50–50 balance of informational and literary text
- Teaches reading standards through cross-curricular content to deepen students' knowledge in core subject areas
- Focuses on questions of higher DOK levels that require students to use strategic thinking and complex reasoning
