Vegware cups for European clients

In Europe & ROI

To comply with the EU Single Use Plastics Directive, cups must have the official text in the language where it will be used. Find out more at vegware.com/SUPD or scan here:

SUPD

Four new lines of single wall hot cups, certified for home and industrial composting. These cups are available in black, white, and kraft, as well an EU launch of our Feel Good range in 3 colours.

Available in 4, 6, 8, and 12oz sizes.

A guide to edition 31

Compostable

All of our products are designed for industrial composting. Some products offer additional benefits, as shown below; however, we still recommend industrial composting as the best solution for used Vegware. Getting the most from your Vegware packaging doesn't end after use. That's why we offer a free waste consultation service, providing expert guidance on the best composting and food waste collection options for your business.

Home compostable

These products are certified as home compostable.

Recyclable when clean & dry, where accepted

Our fibre-based products have been independently tested using the PTS-RH 021:2012 protocol, which replicates standard paper and card recycling processes. This means the materials are recyclable. Acceptance depends on local recycling infrastructure and products must be clean and free from food contamination.

For hot cups, we partner with Co-Cre8 to provide a UK-wide collection service, with options for either cup recycling or composting. We also work with other collection partners. To discuss the best route for your site, contact our Environmental team at environmental@vegware.com

Custom printable

This icon denotes that a product is available for custom print. We can custom print a wide range of our plant-based products. From logos to full artwork, our designers help you showcase your brand. See page 10 for more.
