

Crawford & Company

Statement on the European Accessibility Act

At Crawford & Company, we are committed to making our products and services accessible to all. We fully support the European Accessibility Act 2025 (EAA) and its mission to ensure that people with disabilities have greater access to products and services.

Our Commitment

Accessibility is a fundamental right, and we are dedicated to fulfilling the requirements of the EAA. We strive to create an environment that caters to the diverse needs of our clients and their customers throughout Europe.

Products and Services

We are constantly improving our products and services to make them accessible to everyone. Our aim is to consistently develop our digital accessibility in line with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.1 (WCAG).

Employee Training

True accessibility involves educating our workforce. We have implemented comprehensive training programs to raise awareness and understanding of the EAA among our employees.

Feedback

We realise that technology develops quickly and there may be further improvements that Crawford & Company could make to enhance accessibility.

If you have any feedback on existing accessibility measures or suggestions for future development to improve our EAA offering, please contact us at:
