SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

INTERTRIBAL AGRICULTURE COUNCIL

2025 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Across Indian Country, agricultural production combines culture and community to build prosperous food systems. Since 1987, the Intertribal Agriculture Council (IAC) has partnered with Tribes and Tribal producers to expand resource access, support sustainable practices, increase market access, preserve knowledge for future generations, and strengthen economic opportunities for Tribal communities.

This year, supporting Indian agriculture is more important than ever. Join us in hosting an event that advances Tribal agriculture by exploring emerging trends and financial tools and building on natural resource management, young professional engagement, and access to USDA programs. By sponsoring the 2025 IAC Annual Conference, you are investing in Tribal economies, intergenerational learning, and the future of Indian agriculture nationwide.

The Intertribal Agriculture Council (IAC) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit member organization of American Indian and Alaska Native Tribes. Since its founding, the IAC has been guided by member Tribes to advocate for the interests and priorities of Indian Country across more than 56 million acres of land under Tribal jurisdiction in the United States.
