WELLNESS NATURALLY

Functional Nutrition Ingredients That Drive Performance

Consumers expect more from every sip and bite and we help brands deliver cleaner, better-tasting products that keep them coming back. Our clean label functional nutrition portfolio is designed to meet on-trend wellness demands and create products consumers actively seek out. Whether it's caffeine from coffee and tea, or focus-enhancing L-theanine, we provide ingredients that make today's food and beverages Purely Better™.

What we offer.

We offer a premium portfolio of health and wellness ingredients sourced entirely from nature. Our ingredients are known for their associated functional benefits and are widely used by brands to support today's leading wellness trends.

Our Functional Nutrition Portfolio Includes:

L-Theanine (from green tea):

Commonly associated with supporting relaxation, focus, or improved sleep.

Natural Caffeine (from coffee & tea):

Known for providing clean, natural energy that may support alertness and cognitive performance.

Guarana: Energy boost, enhances metabolism.

EGCG (from green tea):

A fruit-derived antioxidant linked to heart and brain health and general wellness support.

Vitamin C (from acerola cherries):

A fruit-derived antioxidant commonly associated with supporting immunity and overall wellness.

Nitrates (from fermented beet concentrates):

Naturally occurring compounds recognized for their role in supporting stamina and heart health.

These associations reflect how these ingredients are generally understood within the broader health and wellness marketplace. Vibrant Ingredients does not conduct clinical testing on these ingredients and does not make product-specific health claims.
