GET THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

The Bianchi® Model 135 Suppression™ Allusion™ holster is a dedicated, inside-the-waistband holster formed with premium grade, full grain leather, wrapped and laminated around a thermal-molded synthetic core. The body facing side is leather with a foam and anti-microbial mesh outer for comfortable longtime wear, and helps prevent odor and germs from accumulating.

The tuckable dual C-clip attachment provides a strong retention to the belt and minimizes its footprint on the waist. The detent in the trigger guard area supports enhanced firearm retention and the deep concealment and styling of this holster offers a comfortable and secure handgun fit.
