Compact with Convenient Clip-On Design

GET THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

The Model 145 Subdue is a compact holster designed to fit comfortably inside the waistband. Part of the Allusion™ Series, the holster combines a premium full grain leather exterior and a laminate synthetic liner for the best of performance and good looks. The 145 has a high back and features anti-bacterial and anti-microbial foam padding to prevent germs and odor from accumulating against the body. The holster's interior offers a smooth draw and the heavy-duty spring-steel belt clip anchors the holster to the belt or trousers for a secure, yet comfortable fit.

FEATURES:

- Premium full grain leather exterior with a laminate synthetic liner for a smooth draw and long lasting wear
- Anti-bacterial and microbial foam padding on backing to prevent odor and germs from accumulating
- Padded liner provides added comfort not normally found in bare leather designs
- Slight detent in trigger guard for enhanced firearm retention
- Rustproof steel clip for easy removal and keeps holster securely in place
- Fits belts up to 1.75" (45mm)
