Out of an abundance of caution, Champion Foods LLC, is voluntarily recalling certain batches of Motor City Pizza Co. 5 Cheese Bread because they have the potential to be contaminated with Salmonella. This action follows a California Dairies, Inc. milk powder recall due to a concern of potential Salmonella contamination. The recalled milk powder was supplied to a third-party manufacturer that provides a seasoning blend used in our 5 cheese sauce blend.

The following SELL BY dates are affected:

You can find this code in the following format printed in black ink in the image on the front of the box as shown in the red circle on the packaging.

There have been no reports of illness or injury related to these products. Routine testing conducted by the seasonings blend manufacturer prior to use in the production of the 5 Cheese Bread showed that the seasonings batches tested negative for Salmonella.

Please return the item to your local Costco for a full refund. Please do not consume, serve, use, sell, or distribute the recalled product.

Consumers who purchased one of the recalled lots listed above may contact Champion Foods LLC directly info@championfoods.com for more information.
