Sharing the LifeWave Difference

For a limited time, when you enroll new customers who place a qualifying order, LifeWave adds extra cash on top of your retail profits and customer premiums.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

Earn a Product Sharing Bonus

- Share LifeWave products with a NEW Retail Customer who places a qualifying order of 77 QV or more: $5 bonus
- Share LifeWave products with a NEW Preferred or Preferred Plus Customer who places a qualifying order of 77 QV or more: $10 bonus

Unlock a One-Time Bonus

The number of NEW Preferred and Preferred Plus Customers you share LifeWave products with during the promotion period can help you unlock an additional one-time bonus.

New PC/PC+ Customers with Active MSO	One-Time Bonus
4-7	$40
8-15	$80
16+	$160

What Could This Look Like in Action?

In this example, sharing LifeWave products with five new customers during the promotion, generates $215 in total earnings, including Retail Profit, sharing bonuses, and a promotional one-time bonus—all in addition to any Customer Premiums you may earn.

of Customers	Customer Type	Active MSO	77 PV Order	Retail Profit	Customer Bonus	One-Time Bonus
1	Retail Customer	N	X39	$50	$5	NA
4	Preferred & Preferred + Customer	Y	X39	$80	$40	$40

FAQs

Q1: Who is eligible to earn additional commissions with this promotion?

A1: Any active LifeWave Brand Partner in the United States, Canada, Mexico, EMEA, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macau, Philippines, and Japan Markets can participate in this promotion.

Q2: What types of orders qualify for the Product Sharing Bonus/One-Time Bonus?

A2: For the 'product sharing bonus' the qualifying order must be at least 77 Qualifying Volume (QV) and be made by a personally sponsored customer who newly enrolled during the qualification period. To be counted towards the one-time bonus, the newly enrolled customer must have a Monthly Subscription Order (MSO) making them a Preferred Customer or a Preferred Plus Customer and place a qualifying order during the promotional period of 77 Qualifying Volume.

Q3: How does the One-Time Bonus work?

A3: Every new Preferred/Preferred Plus Customer enrolled in the qualifying period who places an order of 77 Qualifying Volume increases the count of 'new customers on an MSO' for the Brand Partner during the promotional period. When the promotional period ends, the number of new customers who meet that criteria will be tallied, and an extra, one-time bonus will be given based on the number, if the number falls into one of the listed tiers.

Q4: If my new Preferred/Preferred Plus Customer creates a monthly subscription order (MSO), does the MSO have to process during the promotional period?

A4. No. As long as the new Preferred/Preferred Plus Customer makes a qualifying order during the promotional period, and also creates a MSO to process, it doesn't matter if the MSO processes after the end of the promotional period.

Q5: What happens if the Customer returns the order?

A5: If a Customer returns their qualifying order within 90 days of their purchase, it will retroactively deduct all pertinent commissions and volumes associated with the order from the Brand Partner; accordingly, the customer count used to calculate the Brand Partner's Promotion Bonus Tier will also be reduced. If the retroactive decrease in count of Customers puts the Brand Partner into a lower bonus tier, any commissions earned from being part of that tier will be deducted from future commission payments to balance the refund.

Q6. If a Brand Partner enrolls new Customers with a MSO, will the new Customers need to maintain the MSO for a certain number of months in order for the promotion to count?

A6: The promotion only takes into account qualifying orders placed during the promotional period.

Q7: What happens if the Customer's payment for the qualifying order declines during the promotional period?

A7: All qualifying orders must process successfully during the promotional period.

Q8: When can a Brand Partner expect to receive the additional commissions earned during the promotion period

A8: A Brand Partner can expect to receive the additional commissions earned for the promotion no sooner than 45 days following the close of the promotion.

Q9: Does the Sponsoring Brand Partner need to remain active for the duration of the promotion and through to the promotion pay date to receive the earned additional commissions?

A9: Yes, the sponsoring Brand Partner needs to remain active to the promotion pay date to receive the additional commissions.

Q10. What happens if I upgrade a Retail Customer of mine who (had an account prior to the promotion) to a Preferred Customer or Preferred Plus Customer during the promotion?

A10: Upgrading a prior existing Retail Customer account to a Preferred Customer/ Preferred Customer Plus account during the promotion will not count as a "new" Customer, and thus not count towards the promotion. However, if a new Customer signs up as a Retail Customer during the promotion, then, also during the promotion, upgrades to a Preferred/Preferred Plus Customer account and creates a monthly subscription order, they will count towards the tally of Preferred Customers/ Preferred Plus Customers on MSO for one-time bonus.

Q11. What happens if a Brand Partner is reclassified to a Customer?

A11. This will not count as a new Customer.

Q12. What if someone places multiple orders during the qualification period to qualify?

A12. Yes. Multiple orders placed during the promotional period can be combined to reach the 77 Qualifying Volume (QV) requirement. For example, two separate orders of Aeon at 55 QV each will qualify when combined
