Why choose Bayswater

◆ Live life to the fullest

Explore the world with us, where learning, growth, and unforgettable experiences are at the heart of everything we do. Our programmes are made to give you the skills you need to succeed in today's world, explore new cultures and make friends for life.

◆ Discover your potential

For over 70 years, we've been helping young people discover their full potential. We focus on you as a person, not only on your studies. Whether you want to learn a new language, get ready for your future job, or simply discover yourself, we have something for you.

◆ Give back

We care about making a difference in the world. The Bayswater Foundation's aim is to make learning accessible to those less fortunate. Our One for One initiative matches every week bought and offers free language learning to communities in need.

Our instructors

Our Professional Certificate courses are taught by expert instructors who work in the industry. This helps us keep our content up to date and relevant. Students can learn directly from professionals and gain real-world knowledge and experience.

We have a large group of instructors and rotate them for each start date, so every class benefits from different skills and fresh insights.

Emma Murray

Founder and CEO of Elm Digital, a digital marketing company based in Ireland. Her expertise lies in the conceptualisation and roll-out of campaigns in the fashion and beauty industry. Emma is also a columnist for RSVP Magazine (Ireland's top-rated celebrity magazine) and works as a celebrity stylist.

Wendy Wyss

Luxury Brand Marketing Consultant and Social Media Trainer with a BSc from Warwick University in the United Kingdom. Wendy has worked with brands across the luxury, beauty, retail, and fashion sectors for 15 years. Her portfolio includes Dolce & Gabbana and Nestlé, showcasing her broad and in-depth understanding of the industry.

Yo'ad Tzor

Strategist for Kairos Media, a UK-based "social-first" creative media company. He specialises in influencer marketing, gaming, social management, and e-sports, working with brands like Heinz, Samsung, and KFC.
