VIHARA

Sustainably made with upcycled glass, each Vihara tile is handmade of twisted tones, textures and hues that come together as one singular mosaic.

Captivating hues emerge from a luminous iridescent or matte silk finish, offering a range of design applications from the sophisticated to the sublime.

Distinct for its artful complexity, there is no substitute.

PERFECTLY IMPERFECT

Bands of colored glass twist together in a marble-like effect, resulting in painterly, textural glass mosaics. Surface folds, shallow cracks and unexpected chips imbue a singular character to each tile, bringing texture and a dynamic range of hues to your space. Stunning at a distance or up close, Vihara is mesmerizing.
