

GP47

Management of Critical- and Significant-Risk Results

This guideline provides current best practice recommendations for developing and implementing a policy and procedures for the identification, reporting, and management of critical- and significant-risk laboratory results. Emphasis is placed on management responsibilities such as development of the policy, the process, procedures, job descriptions, and monitoring systems that ensure effective reporting and compliance with regulatory requirements.

A guideline for global application developed through the Clinical and Laboratory Standards Institute consensus process.