Join millions of Americans in the fight to save our planet

Despite having only 4.25% of the world’s population, the United States accounts for 24.29% of global CO2 emissions. It’s one of the many sobering statistics that underscore the need to tackle the climate crisis starting at home. Earth Day 2023 is April 22, and more than a billion people will use this day as inspiration to make a difference, to speak out, and to champion worldwide change. The continuing theme of Earth Day is “Invest in our Planet” which calls for participation on a massive scale.

“Our world needs transformation. It’s time for the people of the world to hold governments and the private sector accountable for their role in our environmental crisis while also calling for bold, creative, and innovative solutions. This will require action at all levels, from business and investment to city and national government.” Earthday.org

You could be a part of the change by pitching in on the Great Global Cleanup, or even lobbying your local government. Another way to make a difference is by supporting the causes in this giving opportunity. Together, they are working tirelessly to build a better future for the United States, and the world.

• Natural Resources Defense Council: Working to safeguard the Earth and the natural systems on which all life depends.
• Earth Day Network: Partnering with more than 150,000 organizations in over 192 countries to drive positive action for our planet.
• One Tree Planted: Restoring forests, creating habitat for biodiversity and making a positive social impact.
• Surfrider Foundation: Fighting for plastic reduction, ocean protection, clean water and threatened beaches and shorelines.
• Rainforest Alliance: Protecting forests while improving the livelihoods of farmers and forest communities.

Vetted nonprofit recommendations
Support the causes you care about … with confidence

Screening and selecting nonprofits takes a lot of careful work. And Benevity does it for you. Rest assured that each organization we recommend through our platform — from local food banks to international water conservation associations — undergoes a rigorous, multi-step review process.

Benevity’s Cause Engagement and Cause Operations teams research, evaluate and recommend causes based on:

- ✔ Up-to-date regulatory information and program eligibility
- ✔ Self-certification declarations
- ✔ Completed automated clearing house payments/electronic funds transfer details
- ✔ Rigorous vetting against multiple watchlists (adverse media, politically exposed persons)
- ✔ Regular follow-up to ensure causes remain in good standing

Benevity gives your people access to nearly 2 million vetted causes globally.
